Revelation 10:1-11

Rev. Brian Bill

May 30-31, 2026

1. What is another example of someone's face shining? (See Exodus 34:29-30) What was the reason for it shining? Could this also be the reason for this angel's face shining like the sun? Why or why not?
2. Can you give examples of times in the Bible that clouds represented God's presence? Why did God use a cloud?
3. What would the cloud and pillars of fire remind the Jews of? What did they represent to the Jews? How can this apply to us today and during the tribulation period?
4. What does it mean for us today to have domination over the land and sea? What problems or rewards would that cause? Why?
5. Do you think the seven thunders are more judgments like the seals and trumpets? Why or why not?
6. How have seeing these judgements from God helped you to revere God?
7. How do you feel about God keeping things from us? After hearing about the severity of the trumpets so far, do you really want to know what the seven thunders are?
8. How do these mysteries of the Bible keep us humble? What do they point out about God and man? Will we ever know and understand everything like God does? Why or why not?
9. Why is it important to obey what God clearly says? Why is it just as important to be careful when God is silent on a subject? Why is it important to leave the mysteries of God as mysteries and just trust that God is in control?
10. Why would this angel take an oath? What is he promising in this passage? Why is this important?
11. Why should we obey God's instructions even if we don't understand them? Give examples from the Bible where people obeyed God even when it didn't make sense?
12. How are God's delay's different than His denying our requests? What are reasons parents delay answers to their kids? Could these same reasons apply to God's delays for us? Why or why not?
13. What do you have to worship God for?
14. How have you experienced God's Word as sweet? How has it been bitter for you? What usually causes it to be bitter?
15. How often are you ingesting and digesting God's Word? What impact has it had on your life? What do you notice happens if you aren't in God's Word daily?
16. Who are you sharing the gospel with? How could this help the gospel to spread globally?
