1. What did God point out to you through the sermon this weekend?
2. How did the sermon help you to grow spiritually this week? What is one thing you are going to do this week to apply the sermon?
3. Why would the Lord say that the people with Gideon were too many to give the Midianites over to them? Why is this important?
4. In what ways do we take credit for the things God has done in our lives? How can we make sure to give credit to God for what happens in our lives?
5. Why would God send the fearful people away? What camp would you fall into the fearful or the brave? Why?
6. What did the fearful people with Gideon miss out on seeing and experiencing for themselves?
7. Why doesn't God want us to be afraid? What do we miss out on by being fearful?
8. Why did God choose to keep the ones who lapped the water in their hands and send the ones who knelt down home? What did this show about the men?
9. Are you always on watch or on guard against the enemy's attacks? Why or why not?
10. What did Gideon hear when he sneaked into the Midian camp? Why would this strengthen and encourage him?
11. What did someone say to you that strengthened you and encouraged you in the choices and decisions you made? Has anything ever discouraged you and kept you from doing something? Was this a good thing or not? Why?
12. What was the purpose of the trumpets, empty jars, and torches?
13. What are the things that serve as distractions or provides confusion or disorientation in your life?
14. How did God use a weaker and smaller army to defeat a stronger and larger army? Why is this important for us to know today?
15. How has God used your weakness to show His power and strength through you?
