

The Return of the King Notes

Revelation 19:11-21

Rev. Brian Bill

September 26-27, 2026

Main Point: Because Jesus is coming again as the conquering King, we must see Him as He truly is and surrender to his rule.

Recognize the King

1. The word “opened” pictures Heaven being _____ opened.
2. Every phrase in the passage adds something important and essential to our understanding of the _____ of Christ.
 - John sees Jesus sitting on a White horse.” Roman generals often rode white war horses in triumphal procession to _____ their victories.
 - Jesus is called “Faithful and True,” which takes us back to 3:14.
 - He “judges and makes war.” Jesus wages war for the glory of God as He _____ against unrighteousness and evil.
 - “His eyes are like a flame of fire.” This refers to His bright, burning, and penetrating gaze as One who knows all and _____ all.
 - On His head are “many diadems.” This refers to _____ crowns.
 - He has “a name written that no one knows but Himself. We can truly know Him, but we will never completely _____ the wonder of who He is. Even in eternity, there will always be more of Christ to discover and more reasons to worship Him.
 - He is “clothed in a robe dipped in blood.” This phrase symbolizes _____ and refers to the blood of His enemies (Isaiah 63:3).
 - The name “by which He is called is the Word of God.” John identifies Jesus as the _____ Word who existed before creation, who was with God, and who Himself is God.

Revere the King

1. These armies are “_____ Him”
2. The emphasis is not on what we will do but on what _____ will do.
3. Jesus is the conqueror; and we are His _____ companions.
4. When Jesus returns, He will not need conventional weapons or military strategies. He will simply open His _____ and unleash the power of His Word (vs. 15).
5. This “sharp sword” referred to a long, sharp, and piercing sword (Hebrews 4:12).
6. When the King speaks, His enemies cannot _____.
7. Jesus’ rule will be “with a rod of _____.”
 - This means that Christ’s rule will be _____, unbreakable, and irresistible.
 - A rod of iron cannot be bent or _____.
 - Christ’s kingdom cannot be _____, overturned, or overthrown.

- No rebellious nation or individual will be able to successfully _____ Him (Daniel 2:44).
8. The thigh was the typical location for the warrior's _____, and the thigh would have been visible when riding a horse.

Respond to the King

1. It's essential to _____ and receive Christ before it's too late because terrible judgment is coming (vs. 17-18).
2. The fact that he was "standing in the sun" means he's standing in a _____ place, for all to see.
3. He invites all the birds to the "great supper of God."
4. The great supper of God presents a grim contrast to the marriage supper of the Lamb because it will result in an unprecedented _____ with uncounted millions of dead bodies, both small and great.
5. The message is unmistakable: God's judgment is coming, and no human power will be able to _____ it.
6. It is a warning to repent of sin and an invitation to receive salvation because the conquering King is coming.
7. Those who have rejected Him will face His _____, while those who have received Him will belong to Him forever.
8. The question is whether you will meet Him as your Savior or face Him as your Judge.
9. This is an entirely one-sided encounter, more a one-time act of judgment than a prolonged battle or war.
10. The Bible does not teach annihilationism, which is the idea that those who reject Christ will simply cease to exist. Instead, Scripture consistently presents final judgment as _____, ongoing, and eternal.
11. Unless you repent and receive Christ you will spend eternity being consciously _____ day and night forever in a very hot place.
12. That is not a message designed to make you "turn or burn." It is a warning from a holy God who loves sinners and has provided a way of salvation through His Son.
