

The Last Stand of Satan Discussion Questions

Revelation 20:1-3

Rev. Brian Bill

October 3-4, 2026

1. Why is the world becoming increasingly evil?
2. Have you ever thought about Satan being able to be restrained and locked up with a chain and key? Is it hard for you to believe that this can happen? Why or why not?
3. What would make the bottomless pit so bad that even the demons in Luke 8:31 didn't want to go there (See Revelation 9)?
4. Have you ever thought about the names of Satan also revealing characteristics and practices about him just as the different names of God does? What did you learn about the names of Satan? What do they reveal about who Satan is?
5. What strategies did Satan use to deceive Eve? What strategies does he use to deceive us today?
6. What is Satan accusing you of today? What failure, what guilt is he using against you? Have you asked for forgiveness? Have you stopped the sin? If so, how can you put that behind you and/or use it in ministry?
7. Why does Satan long for our destruction? Considering his desire for our destruction, what message should this send to us about the temptations we face, the sin that looks so appealing?
8. What type of prey does a lion look for? How do we avoid becoming prey of Satan's?
9. With Satan being bound in the bottomless pit for 1,000 years and Christ reigning on earth, what will it be like to live on earth during this time period? What things will be different and why?
10. What happens to Satan at the end of his 1,000 year imprisonment? Why do you think he needs to be released after the 1,000 years?
11. Why is it important to know that Satan does not escape from the bottomless pit, but is released from it?
12. In what ways do we underestimate Satan? What is the danger of doing this?
13. In what ways do we overestimate Satan? What is the danger of doing this?
14. Have you made a commitment to fully surrender to Christ and obey Him? Why or why not?
