Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith

The book of Hebrews was written to Jewish believers who seemed always on the verge of slipping back into their old ways of seeking to follow the law. The author of this book ultimately points them to Jesus Christ, “the founder and perfecter of their faith.” The one who died once for all as their perfect sinless sacrifice as the blood of animals was not sufficient to save them from their sins. In Christ, they have a Great High Priest, who can sympathize with their weakness and was tempted in every way they were, yet without sin. The subsequent books from James to Jude follow the practical overflow of our salvation. We are called to live the Christian life while not losing sight of our calling to holiness in the midst of a dark world that God will one day fully redeem.

Bible Memorization

Memory Verse:

...looking to Jesus, the founder and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is seated at the right hand of the throne of God.
