

DR. JAKE ROUDKOVSKI, TRANSITIONAL PASTOR

 Jake Roudkovski,
Transitional Pastor
jaker@nobts.edu

One of the major metrics of church health is not the seating but the sending capacity of the church. We are sending more people to the mission field this year than we have done in our recent history. We just had one of our deacons return from India, eight served in Honduras, and four will be traveling to Italy. Add to this ongoing ministry that is taking place in Franklinton, and we see the hand of God upon our church. Let's keep making disciples of all nations.

IN HIM,
Dr. Jake

REV. JOEY MILLER, ASSOCIATE PASTOR OF PASTORAL CARE

*Jesus said, "Let the little children come to Me..."
And He took them up in His arms, laid His hands on them, and blessed them.
Mark 10:13-16*

As one lady was writing to a friend back home in the early 1800s, she shared all the news going on in her town with her acquaintance. Then she added at the end of her letter, "Not much else going on except another baby born in the Lincoln family." Little did she know that the "another baby" born in 1809 on a snowy Sunday morning would grow up to be the president of the United States – his name was Abraham Lincoln.

As we close out the summer and look forward to the school year, think for a moment about the children. We thank God for all the children God has placed in our lives and in the church where we serve. We wonder what they will grow up to be. Each of them is special to God and should be to us. Whether they grow up to be a president or a governor, a plumber, or a stay-at-home mom, they are all special in God's sight. But they all need us in order to grow to their full potential.

We thank God for the summer we have had with them, for the wonderful VBS we had with so many of them, for the great week they had at camp, and for the many opportunities they will have as we continue to sow seeds of the greatness of God's Word into their lives through Sunday School, Team Kid, Wednesday choirs, and whatever else God gives us to share with them.

We thank God for our Children's Ministry and for Mrs. Kelly and all those who continue to sow those seeds. But none of these ministries would be possible without volunteers like you and me. Who see the value in each of those children and the need for all of us to invest ourselves into their lives so they can become spiritual champions for the Lord.

Jesus blessed the children. But how can you and I bless them? By valuing them as Jesus did and does, by praying for them as they head to school for a new school year, and by volunteering to touch their tender lives through one the many children's ministries at FBC. Please make yourself available and bless the children by sharing a little of yourself. Who knows the difference you could make. Thanks, and God bless!

-Joey Miller

SAM LUNCHEONS

We had a great luncheon in July at Middendorf's in Manchac. It was a record number of those going on our travel luncheons. We will take the month of August off, and we will plan our next luncheon for September. Our SAM Team will meet on Wednesday, August 7th, to plan our fall luncheons and other events. If you have suggestions for luncheons, programs, or day trips, please let one of them know.

PIGEON FORGE TRIP

We still have a few spots for our fall trip to Pigeon Forge, Tennessee, November 4-9. We will attend several shows, not to mention the Christmas shows and sites at Dollywood. We'll also see other attractions and the beautiful scenery of the Smoky Mountains. Pick up a trip flyer at church or come by the office to make your deposit ($150) on this wonderful trip. The cost of the trip is $879, which includes travel, hotel, shows, and even breakfast and three dinners. Don't miss out on the fun of traveling with this great group of folks!
