

Kimberly Johnson is the Assistant Vice President of Workforce Engineering at Wellstar Health System.

She has over 31 years of healthcare experience and 16 years of Leadership experience, focused on quality, operations, and strategic planning. She holds a bachelor's degree in nursing and a master's in nursing science. Her direct responsibilities and oversight are with Workforce Administration, Workforce Operations, Workforce Enterprise support (Float pool), the Wellstar Extended Assignment team, Telesitters, the WMG float pool, the Contract Labor Department, and the Resource Management Center.

Kimberly is a Transformational leader, author, and contributor to several publications. She believes in investing in her leaders' growth and development. Her interests include workforce trends/analytics, predictive modeling, and data innovation/integration.