

David Llubes,
MSK Business Development Manager,
Wellstar Health System

David Llubes is a healthcare executive leading Musculoskeletal Service Line Enhancement & Process Optimization at Wellstar Health System. He serves on the Programs Committee for the ACHE of Georgia and as Membership Chair for the National Association of Latino Healthcare Executives (NALHE).

David gained valuable project management experience during his time at Athenahealth, where he honed his expertise in healthcare management and process improvement. He focuses on driving innovation and optimizing care to enhance patient outcomes through strategic leadership.

Outside of work, David is a Big Brother with Big Brothers Big Sisters of Metro Atlanta and was recently appointed to the Advisory Panel for the Strategic AI Program at the University of North Georgia.