

Lorraine Smith, MBA, FACHE

CEO Regency Hospital-Macon

Lorraine serves as the Chief Executive Officer at Regency Hospital Macon, a Select Medical facility, where she oversees the strategic direction and day-to-day operations of the hospital.

In 2023, Lorraine was recognized as a Becker's Hospital Review Rural Hospital CEO to Know for the second consecutive year. She became a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives by receiving her board certification in healthcare management.

In addition to her work in healthcare, Lorraine serves as a member of the United States Army Reserve. She is currently the Division Command Sergeant Major for the 1st Mission Support Command. In 2003, she deployed as a team leader to Iraq in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom.

Lorraine resides with her family in Bonaire, GA including her two amazing children Isabella (13) and Cooper (11).

