

Philip Atoyebi, MD, MPH, MBA, FACHE

Corporate Director, Quality Strategy and Operations, Emory Healthcare

Philip Atoyebi is a dynamic healthcare executive with more than a decade of experience spanning clinical care, research, and system-level leadership. He currently serves as Corporate Director of Quality Strategy and Operations at Emory Healthcare, where he leads enterprise-wide efforts to improve patient outcomes, safety, and regulatory performance. Philip holds an MD from the University of Ibadan, an MPH from West Chester University of Pennsylvania, and an MBA from the University of Georgia. He is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE) and holds multiple credentials in healthcare quality, regulatory compliance, and process improvement, including CPHQ, CJCP, and Lean Six Sigma Green Belt.

Throughout his career, Philip has led transformative initiatives that have resulted in measurable improvements in quality metrics, mortality reduction, regulatory compliance, and operational performance. His leadership has driven enhanced patient safety outcomes and contributed to improved financial health across multiple care settings. As an alumnus of the ACHE Executive Program, Philip is deeply committed to intentional professional development and serves as a mentor and advocate for cultivating the next generation of healthcare leaders.

