

Eric Crossan,
Chief Executive Officer,
Rehabilitation Hospital of Augusta

Eric Crossan is a seasoned healthcare executive with more than 25 years of experience leading acute rehabilitation, therapy operations, and hospital administration. He currently serves as Chief Executive Officer of Encompass Health in Augusta, overseeing a 70-bed acute rehab hospital generating more than $42M in net revenue while driving top-quartile performance in engagement, quality outcomes, and patient satisfaction.

Eric has led major capital expansions, improved EBITDA and admissions growth, and secured Joint Commission disease-specific certifications for stroke and hip fracture rehabilitation. His earlier roles include regional and hospital-level therapy leadership across 23 rehabilitation hospitals, where he advanced clinical performance, optimized operations, and improved functional outcomes by 36%. He began his career as an Occupational Therapist and holds a Master's in Healthcare Administration from Austin Peay State University.