

Paul W. Barkley, Sr., FACHE
CEO
Encompass Health Rehabilitation Hospital Savannah

Paul Barkley, FACHE, is chief executive officer of Encompass Health Rehabilitation Hospital of Savannah.

Beginning his health care career in Macon, Georgia, Barkley has experience in acute care, skilled nursing, home health and rehabilitation care settings. He has held leadership roles as a clinical operations director, chief operating officer and CEO. Prior to Encompass Health Savannah, he was CEO for a home health care provider serving adults and seniors with developmental disabilities. Barkley excels in developing a strong company culture, expanding service coverage and improving patient satisfaction and access to care.

Barkley earned a Master of Business Administration from Mercer University. He holds a bachelor's degree in medical technology from Medical College of Georgia and a second bachelor's degree in biology from Georgia Southern University. He served as a staff sergeant for eight years with the Georgia Air National Guard and is a Fellow with the American College of Healthcare Executives.