Executive Director,
Georgia Board of Healthcare Workforce

Chet Bhasin, FACHE, MBA, MS, is a healthcare executive with more than 15 years of leadership experience across healthcare delivery systems, post-acute care, rehabilitation hospitals, and government healthcare workforce initiatives. He currently serves as Executive Director of the Georgia Board of Health Care Workforce, where he leads statewide programs focused on physician, dental, and nurse workforce development, graduate medical education, and healthcare access. Under his leadership, the agency has secured more than $20 million in workforce investments, expanded key loan repayment programs, improved physician retention, and modernized operational and data systems.

Prior to his current role, Bhasin served as Chief Strategy Officer and Chief Operating Officer at Shepherd Center, where he led strategic growth, operations, marketing, government relations, and clinical service initiatives for one of the nation's leading rehabilitation hospitals. His career also includes executive leadership positions with PAC Leaders, Texas Health Resources, and Kindred Healthcare.

Known for his data-driven approach to leadership, Bhasin has a proven track record of driving organizational growth, operational excellence, workforce development, and strategic partnerships. He is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives (FACHE) and is a frequent speaker on healthcare workforce, policy, and leadership topics. He is Chair of ACHE of Georgia's Scholarship Subcommittee.
