Innovative healthcare leader, cultivator of positive culture, results oriented

United States

Summary

Gina Tipton is a transformational healthcare executive and consultant. She is results oriented and experienced in healthcare operations, organizational development, quality, revenue cycle, compliance, and community partnership. In addition to organizational development, Gina is a coach and mentor. Investing in others' growth that lasts beyond a conversation, watching them achieve their potential is one of the great rewards of the work she does. She is active member of AMRPA, AHA, GHA, and ACHE of Georgia. Gina firmly believes in advocating for our patients and our industry across the full continuum. She is focused on building people up individually and in cultivating a positive team culture. Gina's clinical background, as a BSN, launched her dedication to serving patients and communities. Her passion continued to grow in operations. Gina is a Certified Six Sigma Black Belt and has her MBA. The only thing that motivates her more than her passion serving our communities is her role as wife and mother.
