

Dr. Lily Jung Henson is the Chief Executive Officer of the three campus Piedmont Augusta Hub in Augusta, Georgia, part of Georgia-based Piedmont Healthcare's 28 hospitals. She had previously served in the CEO and Chief Medical Officer roles at Piedmont Henry Hospital in Stockbridge, GA. Other leadership roles include Chief of Neurology of Piedmont Healthcare in Atlanta, GA, Vice President of Medical Affairs of Swedish Ballard Hospital and inaugural Chief of Staff of Swedish Issaquah Hospital, the latter two in Washington state.

Dr. Henson practiced neurology for thirty years. She was an Associate Professor of Neurology at the University of Washington Medical School.

Dr. Henson attended the Honors Program in Medical Education at Northwestern University where she obtained her BS and MD degrees. She completed her neurology training at the University of Washington. She received a Certificate and a Master's of Medical Management through Tulane University's School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine.

She is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives, a 2016 Dolan Executive Diversity Scholar and a past Regent-at-Large.

Dr. Henson serves as the Treasurer on the Board of Directors of the American Academy of Neurology. She is also Chair of the board of directors of the Metro Augusta Chamber of Commerce and the Vice President of the Georgia Board of Health Care Workforce.