

Trevor Strauss, FACHE
Founder
Strauss Advisory and Consulting Group LLC

Trevor Strauss, FACHE, is the Founder of Strauss Advisory and Consulting Group LLC providing fractional leadership and specialized consulting services built to meet organizations where they are on their journey. Since 2008, Trevor has focused exclusively on healthcare, partnering with organizations nationwide to solve some of their most pressing workforce challenges at the intersection of people and technology innovation.

Over his career, Trevor held production and leadership roles where he built and led high-performing sales teams, drove strategic growth, and helped healthcare systems across the country navigate an evolving labor market. His career spans the full arc of the industry's transformation from traditional staffing and recruitment to the workforce and SaaS based technology solutions shaping healthcare delivery today.

Trevor is known for combining deep industry expertise with a practical, relationship-driven approach to leadership often being sought out for speaking and personalized engagements.