

Georgia Association of Healthcare Executives 2018 Slate of Officers

PRESIDENT

Timothy A. Slocum, FACHE, CSSBB

Tim presently serves as the Vice President of System Support Services at Navicent Health, based in Macon. In this role, Tim has responsibility for the planning, operations and development of Navicent Health's facilities, construction, environmental services and real estate; wellness and cardiopulmonary rehabilitation services; food and nutrition services; security, parking and the Police Department; as well as transportation, clinical engineering, safety and emergency management.

Tim is a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives and is certified as a Lean Six Sigma Black Belt by the Institute for Industrial Engineering. He received a Bachelor of Science from Mercer University, as well as a Master of Business Administration and a Master of Science in Healthcare Administration from the University of Alabama at Birmingham.

Tim is an Eagle Scout and is active in the central Georgia community by serving on several local boards and committees, including the Central Georgia Regional Credit Union and Central Georgia Council of the Boy Scouts of America. Tim is also a graduate of the Leadership GHA Class of 2011 and Leadership Macon Class of 2007. Tim has served as Vice President / President-Elect of GAHE over the past year, where he has worked closely with the Communications Committee to improve the chapter's website and has also served as an Instructor for the Board of Governors Exam Tutorial.

VICE PRESIDENT

Callie Andrews, MBA, MSHA, FACHE

Callie Andrews joined WellStar Health System in April of 2016 as the Chief Operating Officer and Chief Compliance Officer for WellStar Cobb Hospital. In this role, Callie is responsible for operations of the hospital, developing and executing strategies to advance hospital operations, and overseeing hospital-wide compliance.

Prior to joining WellStar, Callie served as Chief Operating Officer and Ethics and Compliance Officer for Hospital Corporation of America (HCA) at Eastside Medical Center in Snellville, Georgia. There she provided oversight for the 310-bed, three campus medical center's clinical ancillary and support departments, outpatient services, behavioral health services and inpatient rehab. Callie also led service line planning, strategic planning, and business development, as well as Eastside's ethics and compliance program. Callie also served on the Gwinnett Chamber Board, Evermore Community Improvement District Board, and Georgia Association of Healthcare Executives Board. Additionally, she is a recent graduate of Leadership GHA.

Callie started her career with HCA serving as the Associate Chief Operating Officer at Redmond Regional Medical Center, a 230-Bed Medical Center located in Rome, Georgia. While at Redmond, she led ancillary operations, completed HCA's COO Development Program and earned her Fellowship with the American College of Healthcare executives.

Callie earned her masters' degrees in business administration and healthcare administration from the University of Alabama at Birmingham and holds a bachelor degree in science from the University of Georgia.

Callie has served as an important part of the Sponsorships Committee of GAHE over this past year and was instrumental in updating this function on behalf of the chapter. She and her husband, Kevin, are long-time residents of Atlanta and currently live in Brookhaven. They are proud parents to a 16 month-old daughter, Addie.

SECRETARY

Marlene Sidon, MSHSA, FACHE

Marlene is an experience Board Certified health care leader, who began her career as a Registered Respiratory Therapist in the hospital and home care setting. Marlene's career progressed to leadership at Kaiser Permanente as a healthcare Administrator and Director of Service Quality. She joined Emory Healthcare in 2005 in Health Care Administration for The Emory Clinic, and worked with various specialty practices. While at Emory, Marlene was instrumental in implementing the patient centered medical home and corporate medical practices. Marlene currently serves as the Director of the Patient Connection Center for Physician Practices for Piedmont Healthcare.

Marlene has a special interest in quality and process improvement and has a Lean Six Sigma Green Belt. She is an active GAHE member serving as a Member at Large, Past Chair of Regional Programs, Past Chair of Member Relations and a Board of Governor's Exam Tutorial Instructor.

TREASURER

Bryant Cornett, FACHE, SIOR, LEED AP

Bryant is the President at Dudley Thomas Spade SRE, LLC (DTSpade) a commercial real estate firm that only represents healthcare organizations. He is also the author of A Rooster Once Crowed: A Commentary on the Greatest Story Ever Told and spent two years in Saigon, Vietnam with PiAsian Limited Partners, a professional services firm. He moved to Atlanta in 1999 and in 2001- 2015 he ran a successful Medical and Dental Practice Group at Ackerman & Co. In 2008 Bryant was awarded the Alvin B. Cates Award for the most outstanding real estate transaction in the city.

Bryant graduated from The Johns Hopkins University and is currently pursuing a Master's degree in Healthcare Administration at LSU and also attained his Fellowship in ACHE in 2017. He has served on several Boards including FCS Urban Ministries and the City of Atlanta Civilian Review Board. He is active in GAHE as a sponsor, and has served as the 2015 GAHE Programs Chair, the 2016 Sr. Executive Chair and the 2017 Joint Programs Chair.

MEMBERS AT LARGE

Ty Bozkurt, MBA

Taylan “Ty” Bozkurt is the Assistant Chief Operating Officer and Director of Telemedicine for Burn and Reconstructive Centers of America (BRCA). In this role, he leads the development and implementation of the organization’s telemedicine program and operational/strategic planning to deliver burn, reconstructive and critical care across nine institutions in six states.

Prior to joining BRCA, Ty was Program Manager for Episodic and International Initiatives for Massachusetts General Hospital (MGH) Telehealth while serving as Operations/Financial Specialist for the MGH Department of Surgery. In Surgery, he was responsible for development and launch of the department’s Telehealth/mHealth programs, creating the hospital’s first TeleRounding program. With MGH TeleHealth, he focused on development of eConsults and International Virtual Visits.

Ty currently serves as Chair of Member Relations for the Georgia Association of Healthcare Executives and had previously been Chair of the Early Careerist Network for the Massachusetts chapter. He also serves on the ACHE’s national Early Careerist Committee and was presented the Early Career Healthcare Executive Regent’s Award by the Massachusetts chapter in 2016.

In addition, Ty serves as Chair of the Executive Committee for the American Telemedicine Association’s (ATA) Business & Finance Special Interest Group, Chair of the Operations/Implementation track of ATA’s Education Committee and is a member of ATA’s Ambassador Committee.

Ty earned his MBA from Northeastern University and a BS in Entrepreneurship and Emerging Enterprises from Syracuse University.

John W. Henson IV, MD, MBA, FACHE

Fellow, American Academy of Neurology (FAAN)
Fellow, American Neurological Association (FANA)

Dr. Henson is Chief of Oncology Services at Piedmont Healthcare. He is a neuro-oncologist and neuroradiologist, having undergone training at Loma Linda University School of Medicine, Vanderbilt University Medical Center, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center and Massachusetts General Hospital.

He completed an MBA at the University of Washington's Foster School of Business and became a Fellow in ACHE in 2014. He serves on the Board of Directors of Atlanta's Bio/Med Investor Network and the Georgia Center for Oncology Research and Education (Georgia CORE). Dr Henson serves as the Chair of the GAHE Physician Executives Group and has been instrumental in the development of this new committee. In addition, he serves on the ACHE Physician Executive Forum's Committee.

Matthew S. Jernigan, FACHE, MBA

Matt is a Senior Business Manager with Emory Healthcare. An employee of Emory Healthcare for more than ten years, Matt has been responsible for marketing, business development, and contract negotiations and in his current role serves as the Sr. Business Manager, Operations for the Emory Healthcare Network, a physician led clinically integrated network focused on increasing value by improving health care quality including outcomes and better managing the total cost of care.

Prior to joining Emory Healthcare, Matt served as a Communications Manager at Northside Hospital in Atlanta. His responsibilities included physician, and employee communication as well as service line marketing.

Matt received his Master of Business Administration from The University of Georgia's Terry School of Business and a Bachelor of Fine Arts in Public Relations from Valdosta State University.

He has been an active member of GAHE since 2010. He participated on the Programs committee as the Vice Chair in 2012 and Chair in 2013. In 2014 and 2015, he participated as a Member at Large on the Board and served as Treasurer in 2016 and 2017.

Bobby Ryan, FACHE, MBA

Bobby Ryan joined ApolloMD in 2001 and runs all business development and marketing initiatives. On a day-to-day basis, Mr. Ryan oversees the strategic development, marketing and branding, along with financial projections. He has worked with ApolloMD's clinical operations team at over 50 facilities to develop physician driven models in complex settings to ensure the highest quality service offering. With his extensive understanding of physician services and the healthcare marketplace, Mr. Ryan is distinctively qualified to run the business development for the company.

Bobby has an MBA and bachelor's degree from the Coles College of Business at Kennesaw State University. He served active duty in the United States Marines Corps from 1993-1997 and is also a Fellow of the American College of Healthcare Executives. Lastly, Bobby has been very involved in the Programs, Sponsorships and Communications Committees for the Georgia Association of Healthcare Executives over the past few years.

Lynne Scroggins, FACHE, MHA

Lynne Scroggins is employed at WellStar Atlanta Medical Center, a 762-bed tertiary hospital with two campus locations and one of only two Level 1 Trauma Centers in Atlanta, Georgia. Scroggins earned her Bachelor of Science Degree from Dillard University in New Orleans, Louisiana. She immediately went on to earn her Masters of Health Administration Degree from Washington University in St. Louis, Missouri. Scroggins received her 30-year recognition as a member of the American College of Health Services Executives (ACHE) in January, 2016.

Scroggins is active in the community. She is on several community boards to include the Board President for the Center Helping Obesity in Children End Successfully (CHOICES) which garnered the attention and support of First Lady Michelle Obama as part of her "Let's Move" program to solve the epidemic of childhood obesity within a generation. In 2013, Scroggins was selected to serve on Georgia's Chief Justice's Commission on Professionalism as one of only two non-attorney members. The purpose of this commission is to support and encourage lawyers to exercise the highest levels of professional integrity. Scroggins' social and civic involvement include the Atlanta Chapter of the Links, Incorporated where she has served as Vice President for Membership, Chapter President and an executive team member of the Southern Area of the Links, Inc. Commission on Childhood Obesity Prevention. Scroggins is also a member of the socially prestigious National Smart Set, Incorporated.