

Nathan Ruch, MD FACEP
Chief Medical Officer
Emergency Medicine, Sound Physicians

Nathan Ruch, MD, FACEP is the Chief Medical Officer for Emergency Medicine with Sound Physicians. Sound is a national performance management organization with more than 300 hospital partners in 40 states. Dr. Ruch has twenty years of clinical and management experience in emergency medicine. Prior to joining Sound Physicians, he was a Regional Medical Director with another national organization.

A graduate of Pennsylvania State University College of Medicine, Dr. Ruch completed residency in emergency medicine at the Case Western Reserve University, MetroHealth Medical Center and Cleveland Clinic Foundation program in Ohio. He is board certified by the American Board of Emergency Medicine and has been elected a Fellow by the American College of Emergency Physicians.

