

Jacqueline Herd, DNP, MSN, RN, NEA-BC is the Executive Vice President and Chief Nursing Officer at Grady Health System. She is a California native, moved to Georgia in 2009 as the Chief Nursing Office at Atlanta Medical Center (Tenet Health Care). With over 20 years' experience as a Nurse Executive her passion is inspiring and empowering nurses to lead. Prior to moving to Georgia, she was a member of Association of California Nurse Leader (ACNL) and since moving to Georgia she is a member of GNA, ANA and an active member of Georgia Organization of Nurse Leaders (GONL). She has served as a Member at large, President Elect, President and Immediate Past President on the GONL State Board. She is an active member of American Organization of Nurse Leaders (AONL), and has volunteered on the by-laws committee, the publication committee for the "Voice of Nursing Leadership", and is current Board of Directors for Region 4. She is a strong advocate for the March of Dimes; served on the MOD Atlanta Planning Committee and the Nurse of the Year nominating committee. She has also served on the Georgia State Community Advisory Board and is currently on the Emory University Nell Hodgson Woodruff School of Nursing DNP Community Advisory Board. She is very engaged in the nursing community and has presented at Vizient CNO Summit, University of No Georgia, Dahlonega, Health Leaders CNO Exchange, Georgia State Pinning Ceremony and Augusta University, College of Nursing. She is married with 3 children and 7 grandchildren.