

SHARON B. OYEKAN

Sharon Oyekan is the Chief Financial Officer and Human Resources Officer for Atlanta Perinatal Associates, a regionally recognized leader in the practice of perinatology and the advancement of quality prenatal care.

As CFO, Oyekan leads and oversees all financial plans for APA and its related companies as the practice continues to develop its complete system of care for the community, region and state. She works collaboratively with the CEO, senior leaders, and the entire APA team to create a continuously improving atmosphere of safety, innovation, and financial stability and integrity, while finding new ways to enhance financial performance and operations efficiency.

With more than 30 years of experience in healthcare finance leadership, consulting, and human resources management, Oyekan holds an impressive track record of delivering results. Prior to joining APA, Oyekan served as Chief Operating Officer, Controller and Director of Finance at CPA firms and healthcare consulting practices.

Oyekan earned her Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Shaw University and a Master of Business Administration, Human Resources degree from Keller Graduate School of Management. She is a certified accounting and human resources professional with extensive training in compliance. Oyekan currently resides in Smyrna.