With 25 years of association experience here, at PMI, Brantlee Underhill serves as Managing Director, North America. In this role, she's responsible for broadening PMI's reach and deepening impact in North America amongst organizations, individuals and communities, empowering people to make their ideas a reality.

Brantlee has led community, organizational and volunteer leadership transformation to achieve greater engagement and value outcomes for PMI members around the globe. She has led the establishment of PMI offices in Dubai, Singapore and Brussels, and oversaw business development planning for regional markets, including Latin America. Brantlee coaches teams in change and stakeholder engagement and work-life integration; and co-lead the start-up team for implementing PMI's culture and change management capability.

Brantlee has a Bachelor's Degree in German, Russian, and Political Science from West Chester University. She's a Certified Association Executive (CAE) through the American Society of Association Executives. Brantlee lives in the suburbs of Philadelphia.
