I’m learning about how much a number is and how to count. I can make a graph that shows how many kids in our class like strawberry milk. I’m learning to sort, classify, and group all kinds of things.

Teach us to number our days aright, that we may gain a heart of wisdom.

—Psalm 90:12, NIV