My eye-hand coordination is growing when I play with puzzles. I learn how to recognize shapes and patterns and how they relate to each other. Playing with puzzles helps develop my critical-thinking skills.

And over all these virtues put on love, which binds them all together in perfect unity.

—Colossians 3:14, NIV