

SECRETS OF STRIP CLUB SEDUCTION SPECIAL REPORT

www.StripClubSeduction.com

Hey, this is Dean Cortez. You may know me as the creator of Mack Tactics, the legendary seduction program that has helped thousands of guys around the world take their game with women to a “rock star” level.

If you’ve read the Mack Tactics book, then you’re aware that I maintain a residence on the Las Vegas Strip and have spent countless wild nights there in the company of many beautiful women.

Many of these evenings have involved trips to the hottest strip clubs in Sin City, and some of my greatest sexual escapades have been with strippers. I’ve dated some, too—I count some of the top dancers in Vegas among my ex-girlfriends.

These hotties may have pulling down $1,500 a night at the club, dishing out lap-dances to love-struck chumps, but after their shift ended they headed straight to my modest one-bedroom apartment and crawled into my bed, to give me for free what those other guys could only fantasize about.

And that’s what strippers are to the average guy: a sexual fantasy, nothing more. This is because when these dudes visit strip clubs (or “gentlemen’s clubs,” if we’re going to use the polite term), they really don’t even think banging a stripper is even a remote possibility.

Macks, on the other hand, view strip clubs in a different light. My friends and I see these joints as some of the best “target-rich” environments on the planet.

Dig the logistics: a kick-ass club jam-packed with incredibly hot, sexually uninhibited women who are practically naked. The music is pumping, the alcohol is flowing, even the lighting is designed for seduction—and the best part is, every one of these babes wants to approach you.

In fact, these hotties are actually competing for the opportunity to sit down on your lap and start flirting like crazy with you!

Now, I know what you're thinking: "Yeah, of course the strippers want to know me, because they want what's inside my wallet!"

Well, for most men, this belief is a self-fulfilling prophecy. They willingly play "the game." They allow the strippers to run their routines on them: some phony chit-chat, the girl pretends to like them, and then the guy shells out cash for lap-dances. The chumps accept this as the price of hanging out in a strip club with beautiful exotic dancers.

They go home alone at the end of the night, with a depleted bank account and a desperate need to watch some porn and whack off. In many cases, the stripper did such a good job of manipulating him that he can't wait to get back to the club to see her—so he can keep blowing money and receive nothing in return.

Now consider this:

What if I told you there is a powerful, proven system for turning the tables on strippers and making them play your game?

A game in which you make the rules, and you are the prize that strippers want to win?

And what if you could run this game on any stripper, in any club—and wind up banging the hottest strippers without having to pay for it?

If that sounds awesome to you, keep reading...

The notorious Secrets Of Strip Club Seduction program is designed to give you these skills. Over the course of many years visiting the hottest strip clubs throughout the United States and overseas, we've come up with a bulletproof process for building fast sexual connections with strippers and framing yourself not as a customer—but as a playful, cocky, charismatic player who they want to be with outside of the club.

Even better, the razor-sharp tactics and techniques contained in this program can be applied outside of strip clubs. Knowing how to handle a stripper who is a “10”—the type who can milk customers all night long out of thousands of dollars—is fundamentally not much different than the hottest babe in the bar who gets hit on 20 times a night and requires a specialized approach.

So, when you hone these skills and master the Secrets Of Strip Club Seduction, you'll be well-equipped to approach and pick up the hottest girls in any environment. And if it's strippers you want to specifically focus on, this program is also packed with insider information—some of it from actual strip club managers!

We pull back the curtain and reveal:

- How strip clubs operate, the differences between the shifts, and how the clubs (and the girls) really make their money
- Shocking true stories about what that goes down behind the scenes (and in the locker room)
- The critical mistakes that guys make in strip clubs that cause them to spend money unnecessarily, and destroy their chances of hooking up
- Openers and conversation tactics that are designed to break her out of her sales routine so that you control the interaction and the “frame”
- How to “read” a stripper and separate the lies she might be telling you, from the truth
- How to know when a stripper feels genuine sexual interest and attraction towards you. (Strippers are experts at faking interest; understanding how to spot these “secret signals” is crucial.)
- How to access a secret website forum where thousands of strippers share stories and information. (This is an absolute gold mine of knowledge for you to draw upon!)
- “Same Night Lay” seduction tactics to close the deal with scorching-hot strippers the same night that you meet them.

And much, much more...

One other note: if you're not the type of guy who feels comfortable strolling up to a “10” at your local nightclub and trying to charm her pants off, then strip clubs provide the ultimate training ground. These are great places to test out your tactics, and then “tweak” them so that they suit your own style, personality, and goals.

(For some guys, the goal is steamy one-night stands with the hottest strippers they can find. Other guys, especially experienced pickup artists, like to cultivate a network of hot stripper friends who will accompany them when they go out to nightclubs.

Just picture yourself rolling into one of your favourite bars or clubs with your arms around two blazing-hot strippers. You know every other girl in the club is going to want to be extremely curious about you!)

This special report contains some quick tips to help you get started. If you're ready to take action and master the strip club game, you can click one of the links found in this report and take the program for a test drive, totally risk-free.

This means you can download this complete program to your computer and start learning it all moments from now. If for any reason you feel it isn't an awesome investment that will get you massive results, then simply request your full refund—no hassles, no questions asked.

By the way, the entire Secrets Of Strip Club Seduction program (which includes a bunch of killer bonuses) costs less than what you'd spend on a couple of lap dances and drinks. Most guys would eagerly pay ten times this amount just to get one stripper to come home with them. Once you possess these tools and skills, you'll be able to reap the rewards for many years to come, with as many girls as you desire.

So, on to a few tips...

TEN TIPS FOR STRIP CLUB DOMINATION

True Macks don't view strip clubs through the eyes of the average chump customer. They see target-rich environments filled with sexy, available women. Macks also know these are amazing places to hone your skills and become comfortable flirting with 9's and 10's in other settings.

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

Sure, the girls are looking to get your money. It's their job. This is why you've got to flip the script, cause them to stop perceiving you as a customer, and make them play YOUR game instead of playing theirs.

Put these Tactics to work, and you can build connections, collect phone numbers, and set up dates just as you would at a bar.

1. Go in with the correct mindset: armed with the conversation and attraction-building tactics you'll learn when you watch this video, you'll possess an unfair advantage over 99% of the guys who visit strip clubs. And you know the girls are going to be pleasantly surprised (and impressed) once you start using tactics like "Cold Reads" and "Hypotheticals" to take the conversation into deep, unexpected areas that build her curiosity and interest.

Then, once you start using the next set of tactics to build comfort and rapport, and getting her to reveal details about herself that she would never share with a customer, you'll be leading her down the path towards seduction.

The reality is, strippers spend most of their time having tedious conversations with men who are completely predictable. Knowing the right tactics—and when, and how, to deploy them—will open the gateway to much more.

2. When you enter the club, walk around with your head held high—as if you're best friends with the owner and you've gotten the VIP treatment at this joint a thousand times. Never sit by the stage (aka "pervert's row") or lurk around as if you're unsure of where to sit. Find a comfortable seat, settle in, and get totally relaxed—preferably near a speaker. (I'll explain why in a moment.)

3. When a hot stripper approaches you, don't let her sit on your lap. Make her sit beside you. (Smile and say, "Easy there, have a seat next to me—I'm not so sure about you yet.") As the program explains, you want to immediately put her in the position of having to "qualify" herself to you.

In other words, you are the one who is not easily impressed! Then you'll use teases, push-pull, story-telling, and a series of other tactics to give her the sense that you're a playful, ultra-confident guy who clearly has his pick of beautiful women.

So the question in her mind becomes, what can she do to prove that she is worthy of being with you?)

By the way, a lot of guys who've mastered the Secrets Of Strip Club Seduction program tell me they love using the Teases and the Push-Pull tactics. They're wickedly effective. So try to use them responsibly 😊

Also: don't agree if she immediately offers a dance. Again, you can use one of the playful responses that are explained in the program. (Such as, acting like she wants you to dance for her: "Are you sure you can afford me? I charge $100 for three songs, and no touching below the belt.")

At this point, if you're sitting near a speaker (and this is why I advised you to sit near one), tell her "let's move somewhere quieter, I want to be able to hear you."

This shows you value what she has to say, but more importantly, it's another way to break her out of her sales routine and put yourself in control of the interaction.

Customers sit there on their asses and let the strippers come over and work their routines on them; but you are selecting a place for the two of you to sit and vibe together. Bring her to another area of the club, and lead her there by the hand.

Never follow her or allow her to lead you anywhere. Show dominant masculine behavior.

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

4. Keep your eyes off of her body and maintain eye contact. Never comment on how good she looks, or how beautiful she is; if anything, downplay her looks a little and call her “kinda cute.” (“Y’know, Cindy, I can see why these customers here would like you. Sure, you’re kinda cute, but you also have this positive energy and a really open personality.” Then you use one of the Transitions from the program to take the conversation to a deeper level and build the sexual connection.)

5. Whenever she tries to go back into her “sales routine,” smoothly shut it down and switch the conversation to something else. Dancers, like used car salesmen, have canned routines that they use to make customers feel ready to spend money.

When she asks you your name, or where you’re from, use one of the “deflection tactics” from the program. This will “short circuit” her routine, make her smile and laugh, and she’ll realize that she’s dealing with a confident, original guy who is not a typical chump customer. This is part of getting her out of “work mode” and into “fun chat mode” where she gets real with you—and where a real seduction can occur.

6. Be respectful of her profession. Never refer to what she does as “stripping”; the term to use for her is “dancer.” And she doesn’t work at a “strip club”; phrase it as a “club” or a “gentleman’s club.”

Also, “chump customers” like to ask her about her job, whether she enjoys it, what it’s really like to be a stripper, etc. These women do not want to be defined as strippers and these types of questions will bore them at best, and piss them them off at worst.

Instead, tell her (or imply) that you've dated dancers before—or have dancer friends—and demonstrate familiarity with her profession. Project the sense that you know the game and it's no big deal; she's got a job to do, just like you do, and what's important is that you're both cool, interesting, unique people who are vibing together on a deep level. (All of these tactics to build “comfort and rapport” are explained in the program.)

Of course, you'll also want to throw in “Teases” too, to keep her on her toes:

“It's too bad I swore off dating dancers, because I can tell you and I would get along. I get the sense there's more to you than these customers would ever suspect...”

7. Befriend the staff: bouncers, coat check, bus boys, DJs, managers, owner, etc. When you visit, staff members should know and greet you. This gives you high social value in the eyes of the dancers; you're not a typical customer.

Befriending a male staff member is easy: smile and say, “Dude, you're the envy of every guy—hanging out in a club full of beautiful women and getting paid for it. Where do I submit my resume? By the way, my name's _____.” (These guys will usually gripe about how working in a strip club is anything but a dream job, but this gives you the opportunity to rap with them for a few minutes and make the connection.)

Sometimes if it's a slow night at the strip club and I'm buying drinks at the bar, I'll buy an energy drink or a bottle of water and bring it outside to the doorman: “Here bro, you're probably thirsty out here...I just need to step out to make a phone call...by the way, my name's Dean, you guys are doing a great job with this club...”

The point is, you're building up your social network so that when you return, you'll be welcomed by the staff. When the strippers observe this, you score major points—and they know you're not a chump customer for them to run their silly routines on.)

8. Don't forget, she's there to make money and the bosses expect her to hustle. (If you were flirting with a waitress at a restaurant, you wouldn't expect her to sit down with you for a half-hour while customers are trying to order food.) Go on slow nights (or during slower shifts) when there aren't chump customers vying for her attention.

When you start vibing with her, the correct move is to buy a round of drinks for you and her. If the club isn't busy at that time, this should give you enough time to work the conversation Tactics in the program.

You should never buy a dance right away, since this is "chump customer" behavior. As for whether you should ever buy a dance from her, the answer is, "it depends how you play it." When you watch this video you'll learn an amazing tactic for buying a dance and using it to build her interest and attraction in you—while continuing to reinforce in her mind that you are not a customer.

I explain exactly how to use this Tactic in the program, but basically, you're going to buy a dance from her...but then ask her to sit down half-way through the song so that you can "critique" her performance. Funny stuff—and more behavior that frames you as an experienced player who doesn't view her as an object of sexual fantasy, and understands her job in a way that no "customer" does.

9. Work towards the "Same Night Lay" whenever possible. Most strippers I know will go somewhere after work to get something to eat, or have a few drinks and decompress. There are "stripper hangout spots" near the clubs where the girls go, but you might not know it because they tend to dress very casually and downplay their looks when they're off duty (so that they can take a break from guys constantly trying to hit on them!)

This program will show you how to identify these "after-work spots" and work them into your strategy, so that you can easily line up dates with the strippers you meet at the clubs—and get them to come home with you that same night.

10. It might take a couple of visits for you to “close” the dancer you like (getting her number, or meeting her after her shift). If you’re not buying dances, and she has to go, encourage her to go make money: “I’ve got some business to go handle and I can see there a lot of lonely guys in here who’d love to pay for your company—so I need to bounce, I’ll text you later about meeting at the spot so we can (fill in the blank).”

This is where you give her the “Compelling Reason.” (You’ll learn in the program how to utilize this Tactic; part of the seduction process involves getting her excited about seeing you later tonight for a specific reason.)

But she can’t leave work early. Strippers need to complete their shifts. So for now, make your exit—in the same smooth, confident manner in which you entered. You’ll know that whether this strip club conversation winds up leading to sex tonight, or not, you are becoming a master of this game and there are other women in that club, and millions outside the front door, that are waiting to meet a confident, charismatic, original guy such as yourself.

So are you ready to learn the easy-to-learn, step by step method that will get you laid by sexy exotic dancers?

BONUS SECTION: THE G MANIFESTO

I am including in this report a very special and exclusive interview with my homie Michael Laws, the mysterious mastermind behind “The G Manifesto” website, which is described as the “guide to getting more out of life” for the modern man.

This dude is playing the game on an elite level and rarely grants interviews, so what you are about to read is some hardcore information from a true player who practices what he preaches.

Because I’m a faithful reader of The G Manifesto, which covers everything from seduction advice, to style tips, to how to build your financial assets—I know that he is a fan of strippers and has a lot to say about this aspect of the club game.

Enjoy the interview...

DEAN CORTEZ: Michael, you come through on the G Manifesto blog as an international player with very strong "natural game." You're obviously aware of the internet seduction community (which teaches guys ways to pick up women), because you reference them from time to time on your blog. But I like the fact that you talk about the bigger picture...

MICHAEL: Not to take anything away from Pick Up Artists, but most of what I write is about making oneself a better person and getting more out of life. Hence the title of my G Manifesto blog is, “The Guide to Getting More Out of Life”—not “How to Pick Up Girls.” Swooping girls just so happens to be a very important part of getting more out of life.

I have always believed that if you work on yourself, and make yourself a better person, girls will come. A lot of the themes in The G Manifesto are about positive visualization, acting “as if,” and faking it ‘till you make it. If you envision yourself as a super G, pretty soon you will become one.

Michael, you’ve written some brilliant stuff on strippers. I love strip clubs, as you do, and I’ve had a lot of success in this area...yet most guys believe that “strippers don’t fuck customers,” and so they should just go to the clubs, spend money, and forget about trying to hook up. I think this is the great “myth” of strip clubs. What do you think?

I really think there are tons of misconceptions about Exotic Dancers. The thing people need to understand is first and foremost, they are girls. And girls are interested in guys. Exotic Dancers tend to go for a certain type of guy to swoop on. It’s the “regular guys” that they just want money from.

As far as swooping, Exotic Dancers are great. They look good, can do the splits, can dance and can party. And Gentlemens Clubs do have great advantages. Most nightclubs suck early in the week. Gentleman’s Clubs are great early in the week.

True, true. What other advantages do you see?

Exotic Dancers approach you, and they are usually rolling solo so many times it can be easier to swoop them than civilians. I think the game with Exotics is just very different than the Game with civilian girls. Most guys can't recondition their mind to deal with it.

Do you have any favorite cities for strip clubs, or any particular clubs?

I love Las Vegas for Gentleman's Clubs. I think it's the best city in America for them. The Spearmint Rhino has been my favorite, historically speaking.

Mine too. When I first moved to Vegas, I met an Asian stunner at the Spearmint Rhino who wound up living with me for a couple of years. That was my first "stripper girlfriend"...

Some of those clubs in Vegas have hundreds of fly girls working at a time. Your neck starts to get sore. With that many girls working, you are bound to swoop some just by playing the numbers.

Numbers are key in Gentleman's Clubs. In other environments where there are more guys than girls, it becomes a money competition. When there are more girls than guys, it becomes a Game competition. That is why I prefer Gentleman's Clubs during the week, not on weekends when all the mugs go there. Every city and every club has its nuances. Some Gentleman's Clubs are full nude and no booze; some are topless with booze. They each have a different dynamic.

Los Angeles, San Diego and Orange County are pretty weak for Gentleman's Clubs. San Francisco is pretty solid. Chicago and Miami Beach are weesh (weak). New York City is solid. DC is ok. New Orleans is the sleeper. I have had great success in New Orleans with Exotics.

Tell me about some of the most common mistakes that guys make in strip clubs.

I have written a legendary piece called "The Top Strip Club Mistakes" which is an excellent resource on the subject. Here they are:

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

1. Using Credit Cards. You shouldn't use credit cards, period. This is how Big Brother and The Illuminati track our mind, soul and body. So, it shouldn't be a surprise that you should never use credit cards in a Gentleman club. There are so many reasons we don't need to go into them all here. Not the least, what are you going to do with $500 in "Beaver Bucks" when you leave?
2. Focusing on one Exotic Dancer. This is one of the most common mistakes you see guys make in a Gentleman's Club. Don't get spooled up over one girl. You lose all your leverage. Any semi-successful business dealmaker will tell you that the key is to have multiple deals cooking at once. That's Leverage. Gentleman's Clubs are no different.
3. Long, drawn-out conversations. News just in: Exotic Dancers are hustlers. An argument could be made that the best of the best are maybe even the female version of The G. A far-fetched argument, but an argument could be made nonetheless. The longer you get caught up in sob stories, or let them weave their magic—and I'm not talking about that kind of "magic" that I weave to turn two kilos into three, either—you're at a disadvantage. Stick and move, so to speak, and learn how to talk to Exotics the right way \(click here for the free video\).
4. Calling it a "strip club" is another mistake. Show some class. It's a "Gentleman's Club". Marks go to strip clubs. G's go to Gentleman's Clubs.
5. Not being suited down. And when I say, "suited down" I mean Suited properly, not some 9-5 suit that an accountant guy wears during some conference in Milwaukee. Wear something custom, flash and statement making. A 9-5 suit. (That is, 9pm to 5am). Let's face it, most guys dress like buffoons these days. Old-school players are rolling over in their graves. (I don't know if I have ever used the word "buffoon" before, but I can't think of any other way to describe it.)
6. Not bringing enough CASH or Bankroll. You never want to get involved in any maneuver undercapitalized, much less a Gentleman's Club. Ever stepped into an illegal high stakes poker game with a small bankroll? Stepping into a Gentleman's Club with a small bankroll is equally as stupid.

7. Spreading CASH around the wrong way. The wrong way is caring and showing emotion. Don't be cheap and don't act like you care. Exotic Dancers deserve a bottled water or some kind of weird, colorful shot when they get off stage. Some of those pole moves are tough. See if your civilian girlfriend can hang upside down on a pole and do a transfer into the splits.

9. Acting like every other guy. It's a Gentleman's Club, skippy, you didn't sign something that says you have to tell the truth. You don't have to use your real name either (it is not like her real name is Sapphire, right?). You don't have to be yourself. Gentleman's Clubs (and nightlife in general) are all about escapism. In fact, you are way better off not letting her know what you actually do for a living. If you want a girl to like you for your true Working Class Stiff self, find a civilian girl.

10. No Dances. This kind of falls into #9. "Guy that gets dances, is guy that doesn't get Exotic Dancers" - Famous International Playboy.

11. No Gentleman's Clubs in December. Unlike your humble author, most regular people in this world have weak immune systems for some reason (probably poor genetic make-up), and in December germs are floating around like crazy. I don't have Mysophobia or anything, but Nightclubs in general and Gentlemans Clubs in particular are incubators during that time of year.

12. Rolling in a big group. Nothing says "mark" more than rolling to a Gentleman's Club in a big group.

13. Not having a good reputation. And when I say "reputation" I mean sexual reputation. News that you regulated an Exotic spreads in the dressing room like Southern California Wildfires with Santa Ana Winds.

14. Final mistake? Not reading my blog, The G Manifesto.

Is there one mistake in particular that you see guys making, that destroys their chances of ever seeing one of these hotties outside of the club?

If I had to pick one mistake that is a "deal killer," it's not coming with the proper style. This would encompass many things: style of dress, attitude, and the importance of simply not acting like a regular guy. This is also a good lesson for life: Never act like regular guy.

The worst is when you hear a guy trying to “white knight” with an Exotic, trying to get her out of “The Life.”

No doubt. These are beautiful women who are making a lot of easy cash by choice. If you come at them from the “white knight” angle, they’re either or feel offended or treat you like an easy mark. That’s why in this program, guys learn how to relate to strippers and build bonds with them that lead to sex—instead of trying to act superior, or being intimidated.

Another mistake is asking her all kinds of questions about what it’s like to be an Exotic. You have to know the score. Act like it’s no big deal to be in a Gentleman’s Club and to meet her after work. It goes back to the principle of “Act as if.”

When you step out for an evening at the strip club, can you lay out your plan of action—from the way you arrive, to how you select a stripper to target and get down to business?

First, I almost always go suited down (rocking a nice suit). Typically, my plan for the evening doesn’t just consist of going to a Gentleman’s Club. I will go eat a dope meal with friends or solo, drink wine...then usually roll to some other civilian night spots to get a feel for the night.

If it’s a slow night, like a week night, I will hit up the Gentleman’s Club. Sometimes just to Number Crunch, sometimes to make a close. It really depends on the evening’s dynamic and what’s popping off.

As far as arriving, I typically get in free because I have the place locked down and I know all the key players. Then I usually sit at the bar turned away from the stage and rap out with the bartender. If the bartender is a fly girl, all the better.

Girls usually notice me: I am the mysterious, well dressed, dashing, handsome, young cat at the bar solo: that’s the vibe I throw off. Coincidentally, this vibe is known to work in civilian spots as well.

As far as target selection, I can usually read girls very well. The ones that are “grinders,” trying to run a lot of dances, are tough targets. I try to find the ones that are more relaxed, more fun and want to party a little. Then, I read the energy and try to find a connection. Closing the deal is usually a natural progression of the work put in.

How do you respond when a stripper tries to hit you up to buy a dancer—whether it’s right away, or after 5 minutes of conversation?

There is certainly an art to saying “no” to dances. If a girl hits me up as an opener, I will usually be polite and say “not now, I just got here” or “I’m waiting for someone,” etc.

If a girl hits you up for a dance later in conversation, and she seems cool and fly, I will many times offer up a drink. You need to realize you are taking up their time, and you don’t want to stop any girl from making money.

An offer of a drink is often a great qualifier, if she doesn’t want that, she won’t want anything else from you. Also, getting a girl more buzzed up is only going to help your chances.

When you want to get a stripper to hang with you after her shift, how do you play it? Are you always trying to pull a Same Night Lay, or will you also get phone numbers and try to see a girl in the future?

It really depends on the strength of the connection. The city you are in plays a huge role, as well. Another reason I like Las Vegas is that it’s a 24 hour town, and when Exotics get off work they often want to party more, or get something to eat. I am more than willing to accommodate them. If you play it right, you’ll get them to come back to your room.

Personally, whenever I’m at bars or clubs—including strip clubs—I always go for the Same Night Lay if at all possible. Strippers often lead busy, hectic lifestyles and they’re interacting with new guys constantly, so I’m always looking to “close the deal” with a stripper sooner rather than later. This is why in the Secrets Of Strip Club Seduction program contains an extensive section how to hook up with the girl the same night you meet her, after she gets off work...

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

Yeah, “same night swoops” are ideal, since the girl is already “under the ether.” That being said, I have had a lot of success with getting girls’ numbers. I rarely get fakes, although it happens to everyone. I think great after-work meeting spots are restaurants or bars that are still open, but the best place to meet is your crib or hotel—for obvious reasons.

Very true. So what do you think are some of the big myths about strippers—and what's the reality?

As far the myths, the big one is that the girls will never date anyone they meet at work. Remember, Exotic Dancers are girls, first and foremost. They do meet guys after work, if it’s going to be fun for them. That being said, not every Exotic is easy. Some are difficult. Some are smart. Some are dumb. They represent a typical cross-section of women.

You hit on a key word there: “fun.” It doesn’t matter where you meet a woman. If she gets the sense that you’re going to make her night a lot more fun, she’ll often be willing to go along for the ride. We included some cool routines in the Strip Club Seduction book that allow you to plant these seeds. ..so anyway, give me three “G” principles for taking care of business in strip clubs: three things a guy needs to keep in mind at all times.

One, dress sharp and be feeling good. Two, have a bankroll. You don’t need to spend it, but it helps to have the appearance of CASH flow. Three, have fun. Don’t take it too serious. You are having topless girls hit on you, for goodness sake!

Finally, what's your advice for a guy who is "in love" (or more accurately "in lust") with a stripper and wants to go from being a customer to being her boyfriend? If a guy has been spending money on a stripper every time he goes to her club, is it possible for him to bust out of the “Customer Zone” and take it to the next level?

Yes, it can be done. But the best thing is to never be the “customer.” Go in with the frame of, “I am the type of cat that swoops Exotics.” Pretty soon you will be. It’s Manifest Destiny.

Strippers depend on customers to pay their rent and cover their bills...but they would never give these guys the time of the day if they saw them outside of the club.

Now imagine yourself walking into the strip club with bulletproof confidence...and using super-clever techniques and strategies to make the hottest dancers feel genuine curiosity and attraction towards you.

You don't waste money on lap dances. When she tries to use her "sales routine" on you, you deflect it with a playful comment, and have her sit down with you and get real.

You get her smiling, giggling, telling you secrets about herself that no other customer knows...and you make her "tingle" with that funny feeling called ATTRACTION...

And after her shift ends, you meet with her outside of the club, hang out for a little while, and bring her back to your place for as much mind-blowing sex as you can handle.

(Trust me, these girls are sex machines that will keep you up all night!)

I used to think that only rich guys or "bad boys" could get these types of women.

Then I learned the Secrets of Strip Club Seduction and starting picking up hot strippers every time I was in Las Vegas, Miami, New York, or any "small towns" that have strip clubs (the girls in those places can be so easy when you use the right tactics)...

I was also banging for free whenever I traveled overseas to Europe,

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

Asia or South America.

I've been enjoying the sex life of a rock star on tour...and I used to be the last guy you could ever imagine living this type of lifestyle.

Here's How I Went From "Chump Customer" To Strip Club Champ...

The funny thing is, I used to be a regular guy who struggled to talk to girls.

After my girlfriend dumped me (and ran off with my ex-best friend), I tried going out to meet girls at the bars...but I was usually too nervous to approach women, and if I did, it usually felt like slow-motion humiliation because I had no idea what to say next...

So, I started spending a lot of time at the strip clubs in my city. At least there, the girls were easy to talk to. (As long as I was spending money to buy dances, of course.)

I would have given anything to know how to get one of these hotties into my bed, but at the time it seemed like an impossible fantasy.

Then one night...while I was hanging out at one of the clubs in Las Vegas...I witnessed something that completely blew my mind.

Sitting in the booth next to me was an average-looking guy (kind of ugly, actually). His hair was thinning and he had a gut. He didn't look like he had much money -- he was wearing a tee-shirt, jeans and sneakers.

He was sitting there alone, sipping a beer, and then he waved over two of the hottest strippers in the club. (One of the girls was Asian, and the other was a beautiful blonde bombshell with the most perfect tits money can buy...)

The blonde walked up to him and tried to get him to buy a lapdance. He gave her a funny look, made a hand gesture, and said something (I couldn't hear what he said, because of the loud music)...and for a second, the strippers looked confused and a little bit offended. (Like, "who does THIS guy think he is?")

But then he said something else (which was really damn funny), and the craziest thing happened...the two hot strippers sat down on either side of him, and relaxed with him, and he put his arms around them and started chatting...

I was extremely curious...so I leaned in closer to hear what he was saying...

He was saying really weird, cocky stuff to "tease" them and mess with them...then he asked them a strange, shocking question that made the girls look at each other, laugh, and blush...

The Way He Talked To The Strippers Was Freakin' INSANE... And He Had Them Wrapped Around His Finger!

I could tell by the body language of the girls that this guy was breaking them out of "hustler mode" and making them "get real" with him.

This short, regular-looking dude CAPTIVATED their attention, and was totally in control of the situation.

As I sat there watching in awe, the blonde stripper started making out with him! Then he gently pushed her away, and kept talking, and the two hot strippers were hanging on his every word...and he smoothly slipped his cell phone out of his pocket and got both of their phone numbers.

(I'll never forget the funny, clever line he used to get their digits...)

And then? He made a "parting comment" that showed total rock star confidence, and then he got up and LEFT the club.

It was pretty darn impressive -- but I didn't think he had any chance of actually banging those two tanners...

Well, here comes the part that nearly knocked me off my barstool.

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

A few nights later I was at my local bar, having a beer, and guess who walked in.

It was him. And he was with the super-hot stripper blonde! She was hanging all over him...

When she excused herself to go to the ladies' room, I said to him, "Hey man, I saw you at the strip club talking to that girl...and now you're with her? Your next beer is on me, I just want to know your secret!

He smiled and said "bro, it's no big deal. You just need to know how to play the game."

He told me the night I saw him at the club, he wound up banging BOTH of the girls he'd been talking to!

After their shift, they met him for drinks and he took them back to his place for a wild "threesome" ...and he didn't spend a friggin' dime!

We became friends and he explained his "blueprint" for seducing strippers. It was weird, funny, shocking and damn brilliant.

I shared this information with some friends of mine, and from then on, we'd hit the strip clubs and try out these methods. They worked!

I met a smoking-hot dancer the first time I used his tips (and had practically dry-humping me in the club, without me having to buy a dance)...and the next day she drove over to my apartment and rocked my world.(I could barely keep up -- this chick was a sexual dynamo!)

And so, me and my pickup artist buddies started hitting the gentlemen's clubs every night and tweaking these methods. We identified the different types of strippers, that work the different shifts, and how to modify the methods to guarantee success.

By spending a lot of time in the gentlemen's clubs, I started meeting other guys who had figured out the "strip club game" and were screwing numerous hot strippers.

One of these stripper pickup artists told me, "why should I waste my time at the 'regular' clubs talking to chicks with stuck-up attitudes, when I can walk into a gentlemen's club... hang out with the hottest strippers...and I KNOW they've got rockin' bodies and are going to be great in bed, because I can see them in their G-strings and watch the way they move?

With a stripper, you know the deal -- and she knows the deal. It's just a matter of you taking charge and reeling her in."

For me, the next three years were a crash-course education in Strip Club Seduction. I learned mind-blowing tactics from guys who literally bang hot dancers every weekend.

I even studied the techniques of one "stripper seducer" who's had sex with "perfect 10s" in the VIP room --while the girls were on duty! (Crazy TRUE story...it's in the book!)

I came to realize that strip clubs are actually incredible places to meet fun, beautiful and sexually adventurous women.

Think about it. There's no need to nervously approach them and try to "break the ice," because their job is to approach YOU and start flirting!

Sure, she's going to think of you as a customer at first. She'll try to run her "sales routine" on you, to warm you up to buy lapdances...

But when you download Secrets of Strip Club Seduction for \$1, you'll be the one controlling the game. You know how to get her out of "work mode" and break through her facade, using cocky, playful techniques to "tease" her and make her view you as different from all the other guys ...

... then, you'll use special Tactics to make her feel comfort and sexual attraction with you. Getting her phone number and seeing her tomorrow, or even after her shift, is SO fun and easy ... it feels "automatic," like you're playing an easy level on a video game that you've already mastered.

These Are The "Insider Secrets"
The Strip Club Bosses Do NOT Want You To Know...

This FREE VIDEO Reveals My Deadliest Strip Club Tactics \(Click Here\)

I don't know how much longer I can offer this program, because I've already been contacted by a powerful Las Vegas strip club boss (this guy makes Tony Soprano look like a pussy)...

And as I'm sure you can imagine, he's not too pleased that I'm spilling the beans about how to seduce "his girls"...

Because every time you visit a strip club and use these methods...and charm the girls and bang them silly without paying one red cent...it's like you're snatching money out of the club's cash register.

So I urge you to grab this $1 offer now -- before it's gone forever. Secrets of Strip Club Seduction was developed by picking up the hottest strippers in gentlemen's clubs around the world - throughout the United States, Asia, Europe, Central America, South America, and beyond...

No matter where you live, what you look like, or what you do for a living, you're about to learn rock-solid principles and laser-sharp techniques that YOU can use to connect with the hottest strippers on a new, sexual level.

For me, sometimes it wound up being a night of wild, steamy casual sex. Other times, I would meet a hot dancer who became my girlfriend for a while.

I once had one of the hottest strippers in Las Vegas living with me. She would work a shift on Saturday night and come home with $2,000, easy!

Celebrities and multi-millionaires would personally request dances from her. But at the end of the night, who was she going home to, and making passionate love to? Me.

(I'm not trying to brag -- I just want you to know, this stuff works. If I could master these skills and learn how to dominate the strip club game, you can, too.)

My stripper ex-girlfriend gave me priceless information about the psychology of hot dancers and what really goes down in the locker room, where the girls share info and gossip about the customers (as well as the guys they'd like to fk...)

Hanging out with her and her hot stripper friends gave me a TON of insight into how they think...their sexual wants and needs...their hidden insecurities...and how ANY guy can score one of these stunners, if he knows how to connect with her on the right wavelength.

Every single tactic, technique & "bulletproof" strategy for seducing strippers is in this book...

Option 1: Do nothing. If you want to, you can click off this site right now...and keep going through the same old motions, trying to date the same old girls, never feeling confident in your ability to meet and date the STUNNERS that most guys can only fantasize about.

Option 2: Go to the strip clubs and "wing it"...try to figure out some clever things to say to the girls, without completely embarrassing yourself.

Option 3: Do What Hundreds of Other Guys Have Done, Risk Nothing, And Return To Your Favorite Strip Club With Invincible Confidence And A Rock-Solid, Battle-Tested Blueprint For Sexual Success.

I personally guarantee that you'll be blown away by the material in this program (and at the amazing reactions you get when you use these tactics on the cutest dancer in the club)...

Don't think about it. Don't come back later. The clock is ticking and I'm committed to your success.

It's only $1 to download the entire program right now. Take a full 21 days to learn the secrets and try them out. See for yourself if they get you fast results. If you decide to keep the program after that, you will be billed for the remainder of the purchase price ($48.95).

Your Wingman,

Dean Cortez

P.S. Why waste another night sleeping alone, feeling lonely and frustrated, when you could learn right now how to charm and seduce some of the world's most desirable women, and enjoy a rock star sex life that will make you the envy of your friends?

P.P.S. Consider this: I know rich, obnoxious strip club VIPs who would eagerly shell out thousands of dollars just for ten minutes in the sack with a hot exotic dancer. You're about to learn how to bang all the strippers you want for less than the price of a pack of condoms!

And IF you use it to meet the "fantasy girl" of your dreams...that one amazingly beautiful stripper who gives you the best sex of your life and makes every part of your life brighter...its worth will be infinite. You can't put a price on that. She's out there waiting for you.

Don't keep her waiting forever...
