NORDIC
FOLK

Contemporary and endlessly innovative in their approach, Dreamers' Circus draws inspiration from the deep traditions of Nordic folk music and reshapes them into something bright, shiny and new. The ensemble displays inventiveness and talent in their approach to performances that include music from Denmark and Sweden as well as Finland, Norway and the far reaches of the windswept Faroe Islands.

Dreamers' Circus are: Nikolaj Busk (Danish) on piano and accordion; Ale Carr (Swedish) on Nordic cittern, and Rune Tonsgaard Sørensen (Danish), also of the Danish String Quartet, on violin.

The ensemble has won five prestigious Danish Music Awards.

The trio collaborates regularly with the Danish String Quartet and the Copenhagen Philharmonic.
