

PET Of The WEEK

MEET BUTTERBALL

Butterball is one of our longest dog residents--waiting over four months for someone to choose him. We're just going to be straight with you: Butterball is kind of a goofy dork. You know, the kind of dog that gnaws on yucky muddy tennis balls until his eyeballs roll back into his head due to the level of ecstasy achieved...by chewing said yucky muddy tennis balls.

Interested in adopting? Head to the shelter with everyone in the home (including resident dogs with proof of rabies/distemper).
