

PET Of The WEEK

MEET TOAST

Interested adopters should head to the shelter. We are open daily 12-6pm. Please bring everyone in the home including resident dogs with proof of vaccines.

Toast is a true working dog through and through. His cattle dog nature gives him endless energy, the innate tendency to herd anything and everything, and a wired/anxious personality when he is not able to do what he was bred to do. Underneath all these quirks, we know that Toast is a smart and sweet boy. He has SO much potential to be a successful family pet in an active home. He just needs consistency and a family that will not give up on him.

Toast needs a home with, breed experience, large property (ideally fenced; Toast is NOT an apartment/condo dog), only dog (as of right now--we do think he has the capacity to accept other dogs once the stress of sheltering wears off--but currently he is too reactive), no small children--approved for kids teens and up, open to meeting kitties that can tolerate his "crazy" (did great in the foster home with cats!).
