

TEXT:

Isaiah 60:1: Arise, shine; for thy light is come, and the glory of the LORD is risen upon thee.

LOVE MUST BE ACTIVE, as light must shine. As someone has said: "A man may hoard up his money, and he may bury his talents in a napkin, but there is one thing he cannot hoard up, and that is love." You cannot bury it. It must flow out. It cannot feed upon itself; it must have an object.

Do good to others, hoping for nothing again.

Luke 6:35: But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for He is kind unto the unthankful and to the evil.

LOVE never looks to see what it is going to get in return. I have generally found that those workers who are looking to see how much they are going to get from the Lord all the time are never satisfied. But love does its work, and it makes no bargain.
