Positions indicated below are the positions held by the majority of organizations on page one.

PROP 30: Gov. Brown's Tax Initiative to Fund Schools

Raises income taxes on top 2% of Californians to fund schools and vital services. Also includes quarter cent (1/4 cent) sales tax.
More info: www.yesonprop30.com

PROP 31: California Forward Initiative

Misguided "reforms" that allow counties to override environmental laws without an effective way to prevent abuse. Implements a spending cap which would make it difficult to restore funding to programs decimated by previous budget cuts.

PROP 32: Special Exemptions Act

Deceptive corporate initiative that pretends to be "campaign finance reform" but is truly Citizens United on steroids. Would increase the power of corporations and Super PACs and eliminate the voices of working people in California politics.

PROP 33: Mercury Insurance Initiative (again)

Basically the same initiative that voters rejected in 2008. Allows car insurance companies to raise rates on good drivers, even if their gap in coverage was because they didn't own a car.

PROP 34: Replace the Death Penalty

Replaces the death penalty as maximum punishment for persons found guilty of murder with life imprisonment without possibility of parole. Applies retroactively to persons already sentenced to death. Also requires convicted killers to work while in prison, directs their earnings to their victims, and earmarks $100 million for police to solve murders and rapes.

PROP 35: Increased Penalties for Human Trafficking

Increases penalties for human trafficking, sex offenses and imposes new restrictions on registered sex offenders. Some allies believe it is unconstitutional and have concerns about increasing penalties within the troubled criminal justice system, which incarcerates people of color and the poor at a disproportionately high rate.

PROP 36: Three Strikes Reform

Revises the three strikes law to impose life sentence only when the new felony conviction is "serious or violent." Authorizes re-sentencing for offenders currently serving life sentences.
More info: www.yeson36.org

PROP 37: Mandatory Labeling of Genetically Modified Food

Requires clear labels letting consumers know if foods are genetically modified. Would become the first law of its kind in the nation.

PROP 38: Income Tax Increase to Support Public Education

Increases state income tax rates for Californians who make more than $7,316 per year to fund Pre-K through high school. Competes with Prop 30; whichever has the higher vote total would become law.

PROP 39: Green Jobs Tax on Multi-state Businesses

Closes a corporate tax loophole and raises $1 billion per year. Dedicates $550 million annually for five years to fund projects that "create energy efficiency and clean energy jobs" in California.

PROP 40: Referendum on the State Senate Redistricting Plan

A "yes" vote will approve the new State Senate districts drawn by the California Citizens Redistricting Commission (created by 2008's Prop 11). A "no" vote will require the districts to be drawn again.
