Money management is a lifetime voyage.

Join our band of voyagers as they learn how money works, face danger, acquire important skills and navigate the ever-changing world of personal finance.

Thinking Money was developed by the American Library Association Public Programs Office in collaboration with the FINRA Investor Education Foundation, whose support made this exhibition possible.