The American Library Association administers Great Stories Club programs through libraries across the country. Please answer as many of the questions below as possible in order to help us understand more about reactions to the program and reading materials, and more about the young people who are participating. There is the chance that some questions may make you feel uncomfortable, so you can choose not to answer whatever you wish. Your decision to participate and answers will be totally anonymous. Participation cannot benefit or harm you. This survey will be used for research and feedback purposes only.
