

Jenny Dorman joined Carney Appleby Law as an associate in December, 2017. Jenny maintains a general practice focused in government practice and legislative advocacy. While attending Drake Law School, Jenny participated in Drake Law's Legislative Practice Program, working as a legal intern in the House of Representatives in the 2016 session, and legal intern for the Senate Majority Caucus staff in the 2017 session. Jenny was a member of the Delta Theta Phi Law Fraternity. The 2026 Legislative Session was Jenny's tenth session Capitol, and 8th session advocating for the Iowa State Bar Association.

Jenny studied history and sociology during her undergraduate years at Truman State University. Jenny also serves as the Executive Director of the Iowa Cable and Telecommunications Association, as well as on the Government Relations Section Council for the National Association of Bar Executives.