

LIVE WEBINAR

WORKPLACE VIOLENCE

— AND THE —

TBI PATIENT-

Keeping the Patient and Yourself Safe

People with traumatic brain injury (TBI) may be at increased risk for behavioral changes that can lead to challenging or even violent situations.

Join us for this informative webinar to learn evidence-based strategies to prevent, recognize, and respond to workplace violence—while keeping both the patient and yourself safe.

DATE

September 24, 2026

TIME

12:00 – 1:30 PM
(Eastern Time)

LIVE WEBINAR

Interactive session with
Q&A opportunity

FEATURING SPEAKERS

Linda Weirauch,
MSN, RN, CPHQ

Experienced nurse leader and patient safety professional with expertise in risk management, quality improvement, and creating safer healthcare environments.

Laura Fields,
PT, DPT

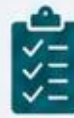

Physical therapist with a passion for brain injury rehabilitation and a focus on functional recovery, patient safety, and team education.

Understand risk factors and warning signs in TBI patients

Learn de-escalation techniques and communication strategies

Explore prevention practices and workplace safety planning

Promote a culture of safety for patients and healthcare professionals

PENDING APPROVAL FOR 1.5 CEU CREDITS THROUGH NAHQ

This webinar is pending approval for 1.5 CEU credits through NAHQ.