

My Commitment to Building a High Performance Team

Consider your personal impact toward the success of your team and what you have learned in this workshop then, respond to the questions below.

What one thing am I currently doing, that displays my leadership skills and contributes to the success of this team?

1

One thing I will start doing to help build and reinforce our team performance and success is:

2

One thing I will do differently is:

3

Challenge Goal: Recognize one person – Give positive feedback to someone about their impact on the team's success.