Wine Club

The latest offering of the AIWF wine club is now available for sign-up and shipment in early December - in time for the Holiday season!

The Roots of Zinfandel in Croatia

April 30 - May 5, 2017
6 Days / 5 Nights in Split, Croatia
+

Sign up by November 27th to receive this quarter's offering.

Celebrity Chef Recipe Pairings

Since the AIWF is about wine and food we will provide celebrity chef recipes to beautifully pair with the wines in each shipment. Recipes are added to our website as soon as the chefs complete their pairings. Check out last shipment's recipes.

New to the club?

Each quarter you'll receive 6 bottles of boutique wines curated by the WineSavage team, who are an extremely selective bunch. Our friends at WineSavage do the research—visiting wineries, meeting producers, tasting the wines and selecting the standouts—so that you're delighted by every bottle you open.

3-Night Post Conference Add-on Package to Istria Wine Country

Join AIWF National Chairman Frank Giaimo and his wife Elissa on a unique trip with our friends at Zinfandel Advocates and Producers (ZAP): The Roots of Zinfandel in Croatia!

This is a rare opportunity to taste Croatian wines and visit the beautiful Dalmatian Coast with some of California's top Zinfandel winemakers.

Istria is the post tour option, and is known for spectacular white wines, beautiful hill-towns, an Italian flavored culture, spectacular beaches and medieval cities. It is a perfect complement to the 5-day program, which is based in the beautiful seaside city of Split.

We look forward to having you join Elissa and me as we explore Croatia and Istria.
