Events:

Neighborhoods:

These areas are the neighborhoods in the immediate vicinity of Downtown RVA.

Downtown Richmond

Downtown Richmond, incorporating the Capitol District and its landmark state house, is a compact hub with indie boutiques and upscale hotels. Cocktail bars and Southern-style restaurants line Grace Street, while contemporary art galleries host late-night music shows and other events every first Friday of the month. There are interactive exhibits at the Black History Museum and concerts at 1920s theater The National.

Court End

Court End is a neighborhood in Richmond, Virginia, that sits to the north of the Capitol Square and East Broad Street. OUR Hotel is in this district. It developed in the Federal era, after Virginia's capital moved from Williamsburg

Monroe Ward

Monroe Ward is a historic neighborhood in Downtown Richmond. It is East of the Fan district and includes several apartment buildings, usually with VCU students living in them

Shockoe Slip

Fashionable Shockoe Slip is a downtown dining hub, with Southern-style restaurants, BBQ joints, gastropubs, and taprooms tucked down narrow alleyways and in former warehouses. It's home to the James River Park Pipeline Walkway, a pedestrian path suspended just above the water. Nearby, the Pipeline Overlook is a popular fishing spot next to a swimming beach and the Great Blue Heron Rookery, an island nesting habitat

Gambles Hill

Gambles Hill is a neighborhood near Downtown Richmond, Virginia. The neighborhood contains the Virginia War Monument, Historic Tredegar, Brown's Island and the WestRock Corporatio

Jackson Ward

Known for its African-American heritage, lively Jackson Ward is home to the Maggie L. Walker National Historic Site, the Victorian mansion home of the civil rights activist. The Black History Museum and Cultural Center of Virginia offers interactive exhibits, and there's live music at the iconic Hippodrome Theater. Tables fill quickly at famed soul food restaurants, and indie galleries fill the area

Oregon Hill

Oregon Hill is a historic working-class neighborhood in Richmond, Virginia. Oregon Hill overlooks the James River and Belle Isle, and provides access to Hollywood Cemetery

Shockoe Bottom

A downtown riverside area, Shockoe Bottom has cobblestone streets dotted with upscale fashion stores. At the Virginia Holocaust Museum, visitors can see a full recreation of the Nuremberg courtroom. The Edgar Allan Poe Museum richly documents the famous resident's life. Hip crowds fill cafes, seafood restaurants, and brunch spots, while 17th Street Market hosts festivals, live music, and a weekly farmers' market.

'Free Night' Wednesday Ideas (and who wants to be the point person?). Sign up to join a group at the registration desk when you get to the conference, or contact the point person.
