CANCELLATION POLICY: To receive a full refund of the convention registration fee, less a $50.00 processing fee, cancellations must be received in writing by March 22, 2019. After that date, those not attending will receive seminar materials in full consideration of fees paid. Substitutions of participants are permitted.

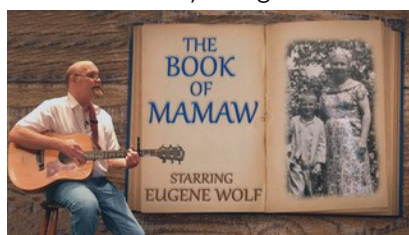

WEDNESDAY EVENING: This evening will provide the perfect opportunity to reunite with old friends in the title industry and to make new ones. In addition to delicious food, we have lots of surprises in store for you celebrating the past, present and future of the Association.

GROUP ACTIVITIES: Bike the Virginia Creeper Trail: Voted the #1 thing to do in Abingdon on Trip Advisor. Walk a short distance to Virginia Creeper Trail Bike Shop, where you will board a shuttle to White Top. Enjoy the ride, approximately 17 miles (mostly downhill), through Damascus, and back to Abingdon. Shuttle and bikes are provided. $23.00/person. No need to pay now, we just need to know the number who plan to participate.

Wine Tasting: Our group will be welcomed at the beautiful Abingdon Vineyards for private wine tasting and tour. $30/person

THURSDAY EVENING: TNLTA's Dinner Theatre featuring "The Book of Mamaw".

The Book of Mamaw is Eugene Wolf's one-man show of stories, songs and sketches about growing up with Bernice Rader, who recognized her two-year-old grandson's love of performing at an early age and guided him on his way. An unorthodox story of a Christian woman who "walked the walk," but also tried to capture Patty Hearst and once advised her grandson if he was going to make it in show business, he'd better "Get a dress and wear it!" From the Church of Christ in Greeneville, Tennessee to the Sahara Desert, a musical tale of a surprising spiritual path of kindness and compassion. Eugene is a 20-year member of Historic Barter Theatre's Acting Company and has appeared on recordings with Dolly Parton, Allison Krauss and Jerry Douglas.
