Association President's Message

Welcome to the 55th Annual Awards Banquet of the National /Massachusetts Italian American Police Officer's Association

Dear Friends,

Welcome to the National/Massachusetts Association of Italian American Police Officers 55th Annual Awards Banquet. The Association is a Fraternal Organization that promotes both our Italian Heritage and the mission of all those serving in Law Enforcement. As in past years we are recognizing heroic and selfless actions of Law Enforcement Professionals and Public Servants.

This year we are honoring members of the Middlesex Sheriff's Office, a local police officer and a former police commissioner. The awardees have distinguished themselves through acts of courage and exemplary public service.

Despite the folks we honor today and everyday, large numbers of police officers are feeling under siege and underappreciated. These are the same officers that were feted as heroes after the events of 9/11 and that captured the Boston Marathon Bombers. These are the same people that run towards trouble as others run away, that walk tiers grossly outnumbered and without weapons. That is why it is incumbent on organizations like ours to shine a light on the good works done by the folks in law enforcement every day in many ways.

Finally, we continue to support other police associations, provide $500.00 dollar scholarships to the children of our members and contribute to other charities. I want to thank all of you for your continued support and thanks to all our financial supporters without which we could not continue our efforts in promoting the positive aspects of law enforcement. Be careful out there.

Sincerely,

Martin J. Gabriella, President

SINCE 1968

William G. Gross

Police Commissioner, Boston Police Department [Ret.]

William G. Gross is the 42nd Police Commissioner of the City of Boston. He has served the people of Boston for 37 years. After joining the department in 1983 as a Boston Police Cadet, he graduated from the Boston Police Academy in 1985. He spent years as a patrol officer, patrolling the many neighborhoods of Boston. He was also assigned to the Youth Violence Strike Force and the Drug Control Unit, as well as being an Instructor at the Boston Police Academy. He was promoted to the rank of Sergeant in 2004 and rated Sergeant-Detective in 2006. The majority of his supervisory years were spent serving the neighborhoods of the Dorchester section of the city.

In 2008 he was appointed to the Command Staff as a Deputy Superintendent and promoted to the rank of Superintendent in 2012, assuming the role of Night Commander overseeing police services citywide. In January 2014, he was appointed by Mayor Martin J. Walsh and Police Commissioner William Evans to the position of Superintendent-in-Chief, the first African American Chief to hold the rank in the history of the Boston Police Department.

Throughout his career he has cultivated and maintained a strong connection with the community. He often could be found on the front lines; interacting with community activists, grieving families, clergy, neighbors, even protesters; treating everyone with respect and dignity. He strongly believes that “if you want change, you have to be the change”, a philosophy he models for the community and the members of the police department.

He has been awarded numerous Departmental awards for bravery and meritorious service and several Governor’s Citations; the Martin Luther King, Jr. Leadership Award; the United States Attorney’s Boston Offices’ award For Outstanding Dedicated Service to the Survivors of the Boston Marathon Bombing during the Trial of United States vs Dzhokhar Tsarnaev; the Department of Justice Investigative Achievement Award and was named one of Boston’s 100 Most Influential People of Color. In June 2018, marking the 50th anniversary of the passing of Robert F. Kennedy, he was presented the Robert F. Kennedy “Embracing the Legacy” Award. This award recognizes those who work tirelessly to carry on the legacy of the late Senator by raising awareness and fighting against societal injustice and inequity that affect children and families.

Commissioner Gross is also affiliated with groups that are important to him both on a professional and personal level, such as the Massachusetts Major Cities Chiefs Association, the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company and the Tuskegee Airmen, Inc. of Eastern Massachusetts. He also sits on the Advisory Boards for Boston Center for Youth and Families, the George Lewis Ruffin Society and the Special Olympics of Massachusetts.

On August 6, 2018, William G. Gross was sworn in by Mayor Martin J. Walsh, again, breaking down barriers by becoming the first person of color to hold the Police Commissioner’s position in the City of Boston. “I am honored and humbled to be sworn in as the Police Commissioner of the best police department in the country. Delivering and building on our community policing model is one of my main priorities. We will work collaboratively to reduce crime and violence in our neighborhoods while supporting and lifting up our youth.”

Law Enforcement Medal of Valor

On Christmas Eve 2022, Officer Sean Mullin smelled burning plastic as he loaded his children into a family vehicle outside their home. After handing his children off to the care of his wife, Mullin went in search of the source. He canvassed the neighborhood and found a mobile home fully engulfed in flames with several propane tanks leaning up against the side. Mullin charged a neighbor to call 911 while he determined if the home was occupied.

As Mullin approached the blaze wearing just a short-sleeve shirt, the propane tanks began to explode from the heat and the roof blew off in flames. Mullin searched the trailer looking for a means of entry and he discovered the owner standing in the frame of a side door. The elderly man's winter coat was melting from the flames and he suffered burns on his beard, face, and body while trying to retrieve his belongings from the blaze.

Balancing the urgent need to escape with the man's obvious physical limitations, Mullin led his neighbor a short distance away from the home where he and another neighbor convinced the homeowner to leave everything behind for his safety. In this stressful and personally traumatic moment, Mullin guided the man to safety. For his bravery and swift action without regard to his personal safety Officer Mullin is award the Medal of Valor.

Born in Bologna, Italy, in 1874, Guglielmo Marconi was a Nobel Prize-winning physicist and inventor credited with the groundbreaking work necessary for all future radio technology. Through his experiments in wireless telegraphy, Marconi developed the first effective system of radio communication. In 1899, he founded the Marconi Telegraph Company. In 1901, he successfully sent wireless signals across the Atlantic Ocean, disproving the dominant belief of the Earth's curvature affecting transmission. Marconi shared with Karl Braun the 1909 Nobel Prize in Physics. Marconi also held several positions in the Italian Army and Navy during World War I, starting the war as a lieutenant in 1914, finishing as a naval commander and was awarded the Italian Military Medal in 1919 in recognition of his war service.

A POLICE OFFICER'S PRAYER

Dear Saint Michael, our patron and heaven's glorious guardian who has rid God's celestial premises of all who are evil and undesirable; look upon us of your earthly forces with kindness, understanding and mercy.

Through your divine intercession, we ask the Lord that reason, common sense and strength prevail among us and that we be instilled with an unusual wisdom to both investigate and preserve, to discern and judge.

Make us as terrifying to our adversaries in the wicked underworld as we are kind to all among us who reflect God's boundless good.

Help us to be impervious to all temptation and unyielding to all who break God's laws and ours.

Let our justice be swift and decisive.

In your triumph over Satan, dear St. Michael, you learned firsthand that a Police Officer's lot is indeed sad and exhausting. But your battle with the dark forces pleased God and your unwavering strength startled even Lucifer himself, leaving us inspired by the triumph of your might and your self control.

And when our duty on this earthly station is done and we meet at final muster to be graded according to our service and devotion, take us onto your heavenly force where our hearts will overflow with pride as we guard the throne of God as it was when we stood as sentinels in the community of humankind.
