EXPERIENCE

Principal Product Designer Stationhead

2022 – Present

Lead design for new features across iOS, Android, mobile web, and desktop surfaces. Developed long-term vision and product strategy to grow beyond live events into fan experiences with more frequent use cases. Established a foundational design system and integrated it across iOS, Android, and web codebase.

Product Design Director Splice

2017 – 2022

Lead design for marketplace product experiences including Plugins and Sounds. Helped establish the first growth product team and lead design for growth initiatives. Lead design for new iOS and Android mobile apps. Lead platform-focused redesign for the Splice desktop app, with an emphasis on design system component-driven development. Grew product design team by hiring and mentoring new designers.

Product Design Engineer Universe

2015 – 2017

Hired as the founding product designer and went on to collaborate across all areas of the company. Iterated product through multiple pivots to find product-market fit. Built the entire website publishing prototype in Swift and JavaScript that would go on to define the success of the business. Prototyped new interface and interaction design paradigms. Built iOS user interfaces in Swift. Lead product analytics and dashboard development.

Co-founder, Head of Design

Jukely

2013 – 2015

Worked in close collaboration with my co-founder to build the entire product and hire an amazing team. I was responsible for brand identity, product design, product marketing, and front-end development. We were accepted into the TechStars NYC program in Spring 2013, and would go on to raise over $12M from prominent music technology investors.

Product Designer

Kickstarter

2010 – 2013

Founding product designer and front-end engineer, responsible for creating key product surfaces including Discover, Start a Project, Checkout, Profile, Activity Feed, Curated Pages, Find Friends, and more. Designed Kickstarter for iPhone 1.0 that was awarded Editor's Choice in 2013. Worked with design co-founder to build out our product design and brand design teams.
