What Happens Now?

After we have been baptized into Christ or recommitted ourselves to Him, what do we do next?

- 1. Connect with other believers.
- 2. Seek a way to serve.
- 3. Develop habits that lead to growing in faith.

EVANGELIZE 2022

[A Program of New Testament Evangelism in Action]

The HOLY SPIRIT and THOSE who LISTEN!

"The words that I have spoken to you are spirit and life..."
(John 6:36)

The Bible is the ultimate interpreter of man's situation. The major word for "word" in Hebrew is dabar (pronounced davar). Important ideas are attached to the Biblical word. Isaiah 55:10-11 contains four such dynamic characteristics of the Word of God.

- 1. The Word's source is the Lord "my mouth" (55:11a)
- 2. The Word's return gathers information about the hearer. (55:11b)
- 3. The Word is an extension of the purpose of the Lord (55:11c
- 4. The Word always succeeds in its mission. (55:11d; 55:10)

So, whether one hears the Word; teaches the Word; or proclaims the Word; the Word is dynamic. (Hebrews 4:12; John 6:63)
