

Global Telehealth Exchange Ambassadors Program

It is time to rewrite healthcare as we know it. Help other physicians find an efficient way to connect with patients.

Who is a Global Telehealth Exchange Ambassador?

Global Telehealth Exchange Ambassadors are professionals working in the healthcare industry (insurance, benefits, or related fields) with extensive networks of contacts.

Global Telehealth Exchange Ambassadors are committed to making healthcare more efficient and accessible for everyone. They understand that the Global Telehealth Exchange is the best way to achieve this goal.

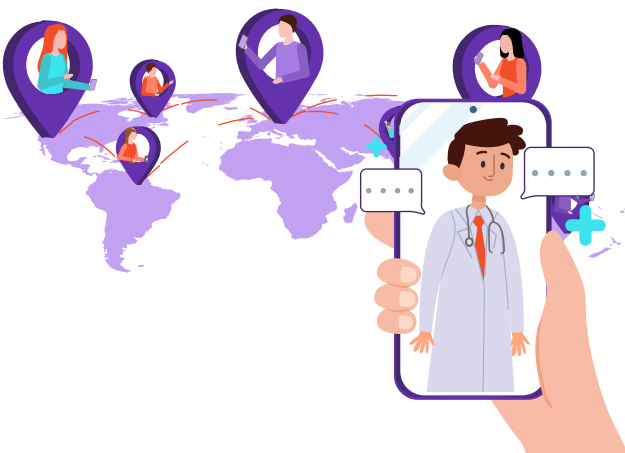

Join our exclusive community and change healthcare for the better!

What do Global Telehealth Exchange Ambassadors do?

They help us to build better healthcare by spreading the word about GTHE in their communities, professional networks, and on social media.

Invite physicians to Global Telehealth Exchange and get rewarded!

Apply to join

Fill in the application form. Solve.Care will evaluate it, and, if approved, contact you with more details.

The team reserves the right to deny your application if it doesn't match our criteria without providing reasons.