SAN MATEO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--ROBLOX, a global online platform bringing more than 150 million people together through play, announced today the launch of its free curriculum on Digital Civility to foster positive, safe, and productive online experiences and discussions among students. The curriculum also includes a new ROBLOX game called Digital Safety Scavenger Hunt, which teaches users how to spot unreliable information and stay safe online. Both resources are designed to be used in conjunction and are meant to engage kids and teens who are going back to online learning this fall.

Not every ROBLOX game will appeal to every player who uses the platform, so players should look for options that best fit their interests and play styles. Players are encouraged to try any games that interest them until they find one they like.

ROBLOX's mission is to bring the world together through play. Every month, more than 150 million people around the world have fun with friends as they explore millions of immersive digital experiences. All of these experiences are built by the ROBLOX community, made up of over two million creators. We believe in building a safe, civil, and diverse community—one that inspires and fosters creativity and positive relationships between people around the world.
