Over the past year, ROBLOX has reached more than one million students worldwide through its education initiatives including camps, coding challenges, and school curriculum resources. In March 2020, ROBLOX released educational tools through the Teaching Remotely Initiative to aid in remote teaching and learning. In June 2020, ROBLOX launched its semi-annual coding challenge Build It, Play It, (formerly known as the Creator Challenge), which was the company's most successful event to date with over 7 million game visits and more than 210,000 games published. With today's announcement, the company continues to deliver resources to students and teachers designed to complement continued remote learning or hybrid learning models this fall.

The company said that the financial restatement was related to how and when it books ROBUX purchases as revenue instead of leaving it as deferred revenue.

Moderators apply for a position within a certain ROBLOX game and are responsible for keeping chat and gameplay civil and respectable among players. It's just like mods in chat rooms or on Twitch streams. Unfortunately, as Twitter user @Txistxd_Lou shows here, it doesn't always work out.

Similar to modded versions of Among Us, Murder Mystery 2 by Nikilis gives players randomly assigned roles. One player is the murderer trying to kill everyone to win. One player is the sheriff, whose goal is to protect the survivors and kill the murderer to win. All other players are survivors who must try to avoid the murderer. Because only the sheriff and murderer are armed, all other players are forced to flee to survive.
