ROBLOX, the kids' gaming company that's getting set to go public, released an updated prospectus on Thursday with restated financials because of a "material weakness" in its reporting. Revenue for the first three quarters of 2020 was higher than previously reported, while its net loss was lower.

The disclosure comes after Reuters reported in late January that the company postponed its stock market debut because the SEC was scrutinizing the company's method of recognizing revenue through its digital currency. In the story, Reuters cited a memo sent to employees.
