Ken's Comments

I want to thank Alan Watkins for his fine lesson last Wednesday night. Randy Brown, from Scottsboro, is with us this Wednesday to speak on the subject, “But the Fruit of the Spirit is . . .” Let's have a big crowd to hear this outstanding preacher.

Jonah, Cara and our teenagers had a good trip to Faulkner University for Legacy. I understand there were almost 500 present. I'm very thankful for Jonah and Cara taking our group to this great event. I know they came back with a renewed spirituality.

It is wonderful to see so many visitors at our services. I can tell how much they are enjoying visiting with us. Thank you for making every visitor know they are special to us.

I want to remind you to pray daily for those with special needs. We have several on our list this week. If you can, send a card to those on the card list. We want to find favor with others because they know how much we care for them.

I love these verses on compassion:

1. Lamentations 3:22, 23.
2. I Peter 3:8.
3. Zechariah 7:9, 10.
4. Colossians 3:12.
5. Luke 15:18-24.
6. Matthew 9:35-38.

As you do your devotions this week please study these verses carefully. We all must cultivate and maintain “A heart of compassion.” You are going to love the sermon Sunday, “The Promises of Christ.” Invite someone to come with you. This will be a great lesson for a visitor.

Always remember how much Hannah and I love and appreciate you!

We follow no creed or manmade doctrine. Our only authoritative guide is the Bible. As we worship together today, our desire is to worship God according to the New Testament pattern in a way which is pleasing and acceptable to Him.

Should you have any questions, comments, prayer requests or need assistance in any way, we are here to help. Please fill out a visitor's card and place it in the contribution tray at the appropriate time.
