Ken's Comments

It was a real delight to have Bill and Brenda Rayburn with us last Sunday. I am so thankful we can be a part of this great work in the Philippines, especially the orphanage. It is wonderful what is being done for the precious children. Demar Elam started this great work and he has spent the latter part of his life building it into one of the great works in our brotherhood. Thank God for Demar and Dixie Elam.

Ken Williams is always teaching a class or preaching a sermon to fill in when I am away. I greatly appreciate this good man. Ken is a diligent student of the scriptures and the good Lord gave him a wonderful voice.

Did you notice our attendance last Sunday? Let's have many more days like this. Getting to be together and worshipping God is the ultimate blessing. Please emphasize in your life the greatness of worship!

Showing people we care does so much good. Our card ministry is one way to do this. Help Sonya and Lisa each week by calling in the names and addresses of those with special needs.

Verses about love:
