Ken's Comments

I enjoyed speaking at Grandiflora Sunday night. We had a wonderful service and delicious meal together. I'm very thankful for Ronald, Russell and this great congregation.

This Sunday morning brother Ron Gilbert will be with us during Bible classes and worship for his annual slide presentation on the great work in Africa. He will preach at the worship hour. Ronald and Carolyn are devoted servants of God. It is always a special blessing to have them with us.

This Sunday I will begin a meeting with the church at Crestview in Boaz. I will preach through Wednesday night, Lord willing. I want to thank Ken Williams for again teaching my Wednesday night class.

I want to ask everyone to especially remember Heather Gibbs in your prayers. Heather will be having her cancer surgery on October 16.

I am so excited about our new babies and those that are on the way. I am very thankful for the dedicated young families we have in our congregation. They inspire me each week when I see their faithfulness to Jesus Christ and His church. Our congregation has a bright future because of our young families who delight in serving the Lord.
