October 9 — THEME NIGHT: Anything but a Pumpkin
We will have a carving contest, but the rule is you can use anything but a pumpkin! Most creative wins!

Ken’s Comments

Thank you for your comments about the sermon on “Worship.” Obviously, this is a very important subject that people need to be extremely serious about. Many were lost in Bible times because they failed to worship according to God’s instructions. If we do as they did we will be lost as well. Acceptable worship is “in spirit and in truth” (John 4:23, 24). We must never forget! It does matter what we do in worship to God and how we do it.

This Sunday night I will be speaking at Grandiflora as part of their “Super Sunday Nights” Fall program. I look forward to being with these wonderful brethren. Grandiflora is a steadfast congregation with great elders and preachers. Ronald Earwood has preached at Grandiflora for over 50 years. This great man has done an exceptionally good work for the cause of Christ.

Several in our congregation need our special prayers. Please keep up with those in need and pray regularly for them. Sometimes people will say, “There is nothing I can do.” Yes there is - “pray for others.”

Let me encourage everyone to attend Bible classes and worship. You need these special times with God and your brethren!

Verses I want you to read and meditate upon this week:

1. Luke 22:41-44.
2. Romans 5:8.
3. I Peter 2:24.
4. Revelation 1:5.
5. I Peter 1:18, 19.
6. I Corinthians 15:3, 4.
7. Galatians 1:4.
8. Hebrews 9:28.
9. I John 4:9-11.
10. I John 4:19.

I look forward to another great Sunday of worship with you. Let’s have a big crowd and rejoice as we worship our God together.

Always remember how much Hannah and I love and appreciate you!
