PRMI

Practice Resource Management, Inc

R. John Rumpakis, Chief "Make It Happen" Officer

Dr. Rumpakis, a 1984 graduate of Pacific University College of Optometry, is President of PRMI, a medical consulting and technology company that provides a wide array of consulting, appraisal, and management services for healthcare professionals and industry partners. From his industry leading software ReimbursementPLUS.com to financial analysis and practice appraisals, Dr. Rumpakis serves the optometric profession in many ways. He is the leading lecturer and authority on medical coding and medical record compliance in the eye care industry today, holding the position of Chief Medical Coding Editor for both Review of Optometry and Optometric Management. John also holds graduate degrees with emphasis in finance and leadership.

MORNING COURSES

Cracking The Code Clinical Case Mgmt Medical Record Compliance 1 2 hr (42214-GO)

Using case examples, the lecturer will present various anterior segment disease states seen within optometric practice and ways we can improve our clinical skills from the case history, examination to medical decision making. Additionally, this course will discuss how clinical care should be reflected in the medical record and will be impacted by interaction of the CPT ICD-10 clinical documentation requirements.

Cracking The Code Clinical Case Mgmt Medical Record Compliance 2 2 hr (42215-GO)

Using case examples, the lecturer will present common glaucoma and retinal disease states seen within optometric practice and ways we can improve our clinical skills from the case history, examination to medical decision making. Additionally, this course will discuss how clinical care should be reflected in the medical record and will be impacted by interaction of the CPT ICD-10 clinical documentation requirements.

MECA
MORRIS EDUCATION &
CONSULTING ASSOCIATES

Scot Morris, OD

“Scot gives real-life information that you need to hear to take your practice, your business, and yourself to the next level.”

International speaker, educator, author, and management consultant, Dr. Scot Morris is well known for his experience in ocular surface disease, technology, and practice management. He is recognized for both his expertise and his enthusiasm in helping professionals optimize their practices. Dr. Morris is widely published in professional journals, books, clinical references, and web-based resources. He also serves as the Chief Optometric Editor for Optometric Management and as a consultant to a number of successful eye care companies.

Scot is the operating partner of the eye care consulting service, Morris Education & Consulting Associates. He is the founder and senior technology consultant of Ocular Technology Solutions, Inc. He also serves as owner and medical director of Eye Consultants of Colorado. Scot is one of the founding members of the National Student Practice Management Symposium Series and a member of both American Optometric Association and the Colorado Optometric Association.

My goal is simple!! Provide you the knowledge, tools, and the infra structure to reach your peak performance.

AFTERNOON COURSES

Interactive Optometry-What's that Red Eye

1 hr (41765-AS)

Finally, a new way to learn what you need to know about common cases in optometry!! We call it interactive optometry. You will call it intellectual, educational, and just plain funny. Since you will be on your cell phone anyway --why not join the fun? This is the course everyone is talking about.

The Future of Eye Care Delivery

2 hrs (40548-GO)

What will the future bring to the profession of eye care? How will the delivery of healthcare in general effect our live and the life of our consumers? As healthcare delivery changes with technology, social expectations, and financial pressures, will you be ready? Join us as we look at what the next two decades may bring to the eye care industry. Be prepared and don't miss this look into our future.
