

Optometric Physicians of Washington

PO Box 1610
Woodinville, WA 98072-1610

Please join us for the

56th Annual Postgraduate Seminar

(also known as Kane Hall)

March 20-21, 2021

Register Now:

<https://tinyurl.com/EDU2021>

*Greetings Doctor,
After last years unprecedented events, we hope this card finds you, your family,
patients, and practice in good health.
Here's to a better 2021!*

Registration Now Open

56th Annual Postgraduate Seminar

(also known as Kane Hall)

March 20-21, 2021

- 12 hours of education
- Fully remote, no quizzes
- COPE approval pending

Includes NEW 3 hour course:

Suicide Prevention Training for Optometry

Required for Washington licenses by HB2411

AOA MEMBERS $45

NON MEMBER $195

Register Now:

<https://tinyurl.com/EDU2021>

For all of our upcoming education events

www.eyes.org

Saturday, March 20, 2021

- 8:00-11:00am Spencer Johnson, OD
Lids and Lashes on the Cutting Edge
The ABCs of Omega-3s for Dry Eye and More
- 11am-12:00pm Zachary Joos, MD
Periocular Malpositions, Plus!
Neurotoxins, Dermal Fillers and Lasers
in Oculofacial Plastic Surgery
- 1:30-4:30pm Jeffrey Sung, MD
Suicide Prevention Training for Optometry

Sunday, March 21, 2021

- 8:00- 9:00am Kevin Michels, MD
The Tearing Patient
- 9:00-11:00am Jamison Ridgeley, MD
Vitreo-Macular Interface Disorders
Diabetic Retinopathy – Past, Present, & Future
- 11am-1:00pm Jay Binkowitz
The Building Blocks of a Successful Practice
Lost Revenue Opportunities & How to Reclaim Them

Optometric Physicians of Washington